Giguere, John Kilpatrick, Miss Charlotte Hamilton, Mrs. B. Legate, Miss Lillian Myers, William P. Malone and John E. Perry.

William Malone, President of Federal Labor Union No. 18518, A. F. of L. expressed the gratitude of the Spalding workers in acknowledging the pin presentation.

More than 2500 Spalding employes and friends were present to witness the award, which brings the number of "E" pennants flying over Spalding plants to a total of three.

Chicago Sets $100,000 Par For Caddie Scholarships

★ The Western Golf Assn. nation-wide campaign for funds to expand its caddie scholarship program was launched Dec. 1 at a meeting of team captains and workers in the Lake Shore club, Chicago.

Under the general chairmanship of T. C. Butz, the drive has been started in the Chicago area. Western GA has sponsored the operation for the last 15 years, during which time 55 boys have been selected as "Evans Scholars" and contributions in the present campaign which it is hoped will total $100,000 will be used to make similar opportunities available to a larger number.

L. G. Kranz, Director of Physical Education at Northwestern University, who has been counselor for the Evans Scholars there, reported that of the group 41 are now commissioned officers in the armed services or in officers' training.

Two of the boys, Lieut. Frank Cankar, U. S. Navy, and William Bigley, who recently received a medical discharge as a lieutenant in the Army, spoke for themselves and the other members of the group.

Other speakers included M. G. Fessenden, Chairman of the Individual Gifts division of the campaign; Jerome P. Bowes, Jr., Sponsors chairman, who reported a total of $15,000 already in hand; William T. Woodson, Western GA President, and Carleton Blunt, general counsel. Mark Brown was toastmaster.

Prior to the dinner, the annual meeting of Western Golf Association was held at which the by-laws were amended to facilitate operation of the expansion program and the directors re-elected.
