

WESTERN SUMMARIZES CADDY WORK

—Western Golf Assn., 111 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., features extensive work done for caddie encouragement, training and reward at golf clubs by the WGA in a booklet recently issued. The booklet also contains a record of the outstanding performance of Evans scholarship caddies, which unquestionably is among the great substantial contributions of golf to the nation. WGA championship records also are contained in the book. The Western again is enlisting member clubs at annual dues of $35. Officials of clubs are invited to write, without obligation, to the Western for the details of the organization's work for clubs and the caddies.

LOEFFLER RESIGNS AS PRO—Emil (Dutch) Loeffler, for 45 years at Oakmont CC (Pittsburgh dist.) has resigned from pro job he's held since 1929 but will continue as gkpr. He started with the club as a caddie and became recognized as one of the top men in course conditioning. Loeffler and the Fownes, father and son, have constituted one of the most successful greenkeeper-official teams in establishing a great reputation for a course. Dutch was wounded in World War 1 and on Oakmont's appeal the War Dept. shipped him home to mend while he conditioned the course for the 1919 National Amateur, which was won by the home club player Davie Herron, who defeated Bob Jones, 5 and 4, in the finals. Loeffler's job was such that the USGA issued its first commendation to a greenkeeper on condition of a course during a championship. He is reputed to have been drawing the highest salary of any pro in the country.

WILLIE MAGUIRE IMPROVING—Latest report on condition of Willie Maguire, pro of Houston (Tex.) CC and treas., PGA of America, is that the veteran is doing a grand job of fighting the illness with which he was stricken suddenly. He may soon be permitted to leave the hospital.

DESIGNS NEW SCORESHEET—H. L. Davis, principal, Lafayette high school, Lexington, Ky., has designed a scoring sheet for combined, single and 4-ball matches that is especially convenient for league and interclub matches. Sheets are made with plenty of room for legibility but for easier filing and reference than the customary size. The sheets are put up in book form. Details may be secured from Hurst Ptg. Co., Lexington, Ky.
