with carbon black to raise soil temperatures. . . Tests so far disclose that soil containing carbon black absorbs more heat from sun than untreated soil. . . Further study being made to determine feasibility of carbon black treatments to defrost soil for earlier spring planting and postpone fall frosts.

Walter Hagen missed third annual Hagen Day put on by Michigan PGA at Lakepointe CC (Detroit dist.). . . Walter sick at DAC and was kept from the party by doctor's orders. . . It broke The Hague's heart to miss a party but it's a good sign that the mileage is reminding Walter to take care of himself. . . Ed Furgol won the huge Hagen trophy with 139. . . Horton Smith and Leo Diegel at the dinner told of Hagen scoring feats in the old days that continued day after day in exhibitions and tournaments.

Mrs. Edith W. Painter, wife of veteran Southern California golf writer Ollie Painter, died Sept. 23 in Buffalo, Wyo., following a brain operation.

County relief labor probably to be used in building new Eaton Canyon public course between Pasadena and Atladena, Calif. . . . Gomer Sims, co-owner of Alondra Park GC, Torrance, Calif., says construction and seeding completed. . . Course to be opened early next year. . . Midwest Assn. of Golf Course Supts. to have meeting and tour of Armour fertilizer plant, Chicago Heights, Ill., Nov. 7. . . Bob Duguid returning as supt. to Evanston (Ill.) GC. . . Northern California PGA Bulletin in first paragraph says: "For the good of all, it is about time that strong emphasis be placed on facts and all flowery speeches be done away with quickly." . . . Then Pres. Pat Markovich proceeds to write a frank and constructive detailed account of pro personnel and association work that needs considerable goosing up. . . Markovich notes: "Our one program that has shown remarkable progress is that for assistant professionals." . . . Gotta hand Pat and his teammates credit for having the character to candidly consider errors of omission or commission instead of muttering, bellyaching and bellowing "treason" when the truth is told.

Great job done by the veteran Fred Newnham at Santa Fe (N. Mex.) muni course. . . Fred went there in 1943 from the Carolinas. . . Then the course had few players, no grass in fairways or tees and small sand greens. . . Now it has 200 regular members, grass fairways, tees and Astoria bent greens. . . Fred has a free clinic each week and conducts a weekly golf class with 40 women enrolled.
