

MacGregor Tourney Club

ALL IS JOY AT TOURNEY CLUB

Usual merry meetings of MacGregor Tourney Club were held at 1950 PGA championship when that classic old American institution, the free lunch counter, made its annual return. Among the prominent clubfellows in attendance were, left to right: Bill Barbour, Cleveland; Dave McCormick, Pittsburgh; Toney Penna, U.S.A.; Frank Kiraly, Johnstown, Pa.; Ted Huga, Cleveland; Ock Willoweit, MacGregor's Ohio rover; and Harry Schwab, Dayton.

KEN GOIT HEADS NEW SOILAIRE COMPANY

Kenneth E. Goit, widely known in golf for his long association with the Toro Co., mower and tractor manufacturers, has retired as pres., Toro Co. to become pres. of Sollaire Industries, 1200 2d Ave., S., Minneapolis, Minn. Goit will continue with Toro in an advisory capacity.

Sollaire Industries is manufacturing a soil aeration device available in two types:

the Tractoraire which is tractor-drawn, and the Motoraire which has a Briggs & Stratton engine and six aerating wheels. The company also makes hand tools for aerating home lawns, trees and shrubs.

"Dutch" Schmidt's many friends will be glad to know the robust golf supply salesman is back in circulation again after two month's confinement with arthritis.
