

Richards was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, his family moving to Texas when he was only three years old where he has lived ever since. At high school in Ferris, Texas, Don distinguished himself as catcher on the baseball team for five years, as a letter-man in football for three years and as the track team's miler for two years. After attending Baylor University Don played baseball for three years in the Dallas Bank and Sunday School Leagues — leading the Bank League in hitting in 1930.

Don spent fifteen years as Office Manager for the insurance-real estate firm of Sam Dickinson in Dallas. Following three years in the Air Force Transport Command, Don became manager for Golf Pro Harry Todd and is now covering Oklahoma, Memphis, Tenn., Louisiana, and Arkansas for Spalding's Pro Golf Dept.

NEW SCORE ANALYSIS SYSTEM

Five-In-One, a new system with which a golfer can analyze his own game, has been incorporated in a manual now being marketed by Ernest Dyson, Box 466, Meriden, Conn. Five-In-One rating cards are filled out by the golfer as he plays each round and provide a means of comparing his wood shots, his irons, his chips and long putts and his short putting with "par."

While Five-In-One will increase a golfer's enjoyment of the game, it will also enable a spectator of a match to rate the play of the participants—or a golfer the abilities of a future opponent. Complete instruction manual, together with a set of 25 rating cards, retails for $1 and is available to pro shops and driving range proprietors at regular quantity discounts.
