was always your companion as well as your partner on a round."

ARE GOLFERS HUMAN? By Robinson Murray. Published by Prentice-Hall, Inc., 70 5th av., New York 11, $2.50.

Murray has done a book that scores much better than par in laughs making the rounds of almost every type of golfer you know, and the situations on the course and in the clubhouse that make you laugh at yourself as well as the others. The illustrations by the four Roths also are funny. "Are Golfers Human" is one of the few golf books published during the past century that doesn't do a thing to improve your game, but has the high merit of reconciling you to the way you play.
