NEWS OF THE GOLF WORLD IN BRIEF

James M. Robbins, Garden City GC, elected pres., Metropolitan (NY) Golf Assn. . . . Stephen Berrien, Upper Montclair CC, vp . . . Wm. P. Turnesa, Knollwood CC, sec., and Kenneth H. Burns, treas. . . . PGA in investigating possibilities of a pension plan found that it has 300 members over 60 . . . Oklahoma Turf Assn. its Research Advisory Committee and state experiment station asking state's golf clubs to submit problems so priority on research program may be determined.

Irene Blakeman who used to be practically the office staff of the PGA when it was getting firmly established, is a grandma now . . . Daughter born to Irene's daughter, Mrs. Don Robertson . . . Western Golf Assn., 8 S. Dearborn, Chicago 3, issuing book early this year on improving caddie condition . . . Joe Dey in USGA Journal says 1951 National Amateur indicated "number of low-handicap players must be at an all-time high." . . . Joe named 8 amateurs who would have had most golf experts wondering if the 8 had been named for the 1951 Walker Cup team . . . The 8 were the fellows who knocked the U. S. Walker Cuppers out of the 1951 National Amateur.

Golf architect Wm. B. Langford's piece "Why Not Six-Hole Golf Courses" in USGA Journal very practical tip on how to use small space in getting low cost, low maintenance course that would meet requirements in many areas . . . Langford's idea already being given consideration in numerous smaller towns and by corporations contemplating building courses for employees.

Tam O'Shanter CC members contributed $5000 to Western GA Evans Caddie Scholarship fund and Tam pres., George S. May and his wife matched members' caddie fund gift for second consecutive year . . . The $10,000 total is largest single gift received in 32-year history of Evans Scholars Foundation . . . In 1950 Tam members and the Mays gave the fund $6,800 . . . 94 caddies now in college on Evans scholarships . . . Gross income to Evans fund in 1951 was $99,068, more than double amount raised during first year of Jerry Bowes' WGA presidency . . . 201 ex-caddies have received Evans scholarships.

HERB GRAFFIS

Tom O'Neil, former Executive News Editor, Associated Press radio, goes with Bob Harlow on Golf World, succeeding Bud Harvey . . . Miss Amelia Ruth Bartlett, a sister of Charles Bartlett, Chicago Tribune golf writer, died in Chicago Dec. 18 of heart attack . . . John Anderson, widely known veteran course supt. now retired and with Mrs. Anderson living at 2307 32d st., Tampa, Fla. . . . Dominic Blinkiewicz, supt. at American Baptist Assembly's Lawsonia (Wis.) course, since 1928, given high praise by John O'Donnell, Davenport (Ia.) Dick Forester, Houston CC pro, has almost National Amateur class of entry . . . Few places in 300 field still open.

Manuel Francis, supt. at Vesper CC, lauded by Frank Sargent, Lowell (Mass.) sports columnist for superb results in course maintenance . . . Sargent tells of Francis often starting day at 2 a.m. with searchlight inspection of greens . . . Paul Douglas, senior senator from Illinois, in a lecture rapped army golf courses as one of the armed forces extravagances . . . Douglas, who enlisted in World War II as a marine and had a fine record, should know that golf courses at military installations are better and far less expensive recreation than is available from the underworld racketeers and other bilking merchants in towns adjacent to armed force installations . . . Congressional committees also should consider this comparison . . . Douglas recently showed signs of conscientious overwork in the senate . . . He needs golf to keep in his normal high level of mental condition.

Bill Bangs, Jr. from Indian Hill club (Chicago dist.) to Milwaukee (Wis.) CC as mgr. . . . St. Andrews was 3000th course Ralph A. Kennedy played in establishing what'll probably be an all-time record . . . At 70 Ralph's good for a lot more courses . . . There are about 7900 courses in the world . . . "AGRICO-GROWN TURF —FED FALL AND SPRING Really Stands Up!"

"IT is my practice to use AGRICO COUNTRY CLUB Fertilizer both in Fall and Spring, on my fairways as well as my greens," writes Frank Grandolfi, for 27 years greenkeeper at Elmwood Country Club Inc., Elmsford, N. Y. "By feeding both Fall and Spring, instead of just once a year, my fairways always respond beautifully and keep in excellent condition throughout the playing season. I heartily recommend AGRICO COUNTRY CLUB Fertilizer and suggest that fairways be fed twice yearly."

More attention is being given by private club officials to suggestion advanced by Harry Fawcett at 1951 Club Managers Assn. meeting about changing charters to an "operated for profit" basis . . . Heavier tax pressure makes the suggestion interesting although chances for operating at a profit may not be strong . . . Small clubs out in the sticks planning to put on more star exhibitions although scared by exhibition fees.

George Campbell now supt. at Belle Haven CC, Alexandria, Va. . . Mid-Atlantic Assn. of Golf Course Supts. says some clubs in that area are experimenting with dual tees . . . One planted to U-3 Bermuda for summer play, the other with a good cool season mixture for spring, fall and winter play . . . Mid-Atlantic to have its Winter Turf Conference Jan. 8 and 9 at Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Md. . . "Constructive Suggestion Reports" in Mid-Atlantic's Turf News Letter on courses inspected by association members at their meetings are standout jobs in supt. organization mutual help and highly valuable service to clubs.

Supt. Martinez of Mexico City CC makes tour of Southern California courses . . . Sent by his club for research and maintenance studies . . . were right and the press was wrong . . . The effort was handicapped by the absence of Hogan, the PGA Man of the Year; and Snead, PGA champion, from the PGA President's dinner and an embarrassing neglect of seating arrangements for sportswriting guests . . . On the bright side of public relations was the PGA's award of a plaque to Oakmont for being host to the 1951 PGA championship . . . The award was received by Dave McKay to be presented to the club.

A slight application of Gene Sarazen's policy would avoid most of the unfortunate and sometimes quite unfair public relations jams involving tournament pros and the PGA . . . Gene was a great guy for writing "thank you" letters and postcards . . . Even when he didn't take away a piece of prize money (which was seldom) he'd drop a few lines to club officials and lie like a gentleman, saying he had enjoyed the club . . . There used to be a lot of Gene's letters and cards posted on bulletin boards at clubs . . . GOLFDOM has frequently suggested to PGA it could play par on the etiquette course by being as prompt as the USGA and Western GA in thanking clubs and tournament sponsoring organizations for valuable services rendered free . . . Check for approximately $25,000 (record payment for Ryder Cup matches) that PGA got from Pinehurst after Ryder Cup matches by any code of good manners and good business would get immediate official "thank you."

Pros at small clubs near where large industrial outfits have company stores say pros get short-counted with company stores selling "wholesale" . . . The companies give strong protection to retail prices and company employees don't sell their services "wholesale." . . . Charles R. Bangs, formerly mgr., Northmoor CC (Chicago dist.) now managing beautiful Villa Bonita, Bonita Springs, Fla. . . . Bruce Johnson Realty Co., naming streets in residential site adjoining Lakeview CC, Soap Lake, Wash., after famous American courses.

British Ryder Cuppers said their wristier style is result of having to get their smaller ball up from close lies . . . They explained their jab style of putting as required by their fast and slippery greens . . . Lloyd Mangrum won 1951 top purse total with $26,088.83 and Vardon trophy with 70.05 stroke average for 104 tournament rounds . . . First time for 37-year-old Lloyd as winner in both these yearly departments . . . Mangrum's total as top money winner lowest leader total since 1942 when war curtailed schedule . . . PGA 1952 winter schedule lists 14 events and $147,000 prize money, starting with LA Open, Jan. 4-7 and finishing at Greensboro, N. C., April 11-14.
