

whole cover to form all new surface markings. Mulherin, who has had over 25 years experience in rebuilding golf balls, claims that anyone can use this device without previous experience and reclaim 90 per cent of all cut balls where none of the original balata is missing. Further details may be obtained from the manufacturer.

The ability of Koroseal Tile Floor to "take it" is demonstrated in the locker-room of the Broadmoor GC, Colorado Springs. The 3 inch oak threshold of the locker-room has been worn down and replaced three times since the Koroseal floor was installed two years ago. The new all-vinyl plastic flooring is made by the Sloane-Blabon Corp., 295 Fifth Ave., New York City.
