DAVIS OPENS SEASON WITH OPEN HOUSE

George A. Davis, Inc., 5440 Northwest Highway, Chicago, held its annual open house March 4 and 5 with a record attendance of golf course supts., park supts., and other men in the art, science and profession of turf development. George Davis, Oscar Borgmeier and their team presented a vast array of course construction and maintenance equipment and supplies and with numerous salesmen on the job conducted a highly informative shopping show. The Davis shop and warehouse also gave visitors many ideas for use at their courses. The oyster bar and smorgasbord dinners, famous for abundance and epicurean class, again took a beating from a multitude of experts.
