NOT for Driving Ranges.

Fund, Inc. allotments to PGA educational, relief and welfare funds considerably relieved PGA budget problem . . . George S. May organization study of PGA headquarters resulted in suggestions for operating economies.

Life magazine considering paying for PGA film on teaching to be produced by Teaching committee headed by Harold Sargent . . . Film to include several stars as models and to have the pros' instruction customers in the act . . . That'll be interesting valuable innovation as golf instruction films have pictured only the performances of the perfect, not the problems of those who go to pros for playing help.

Western Golf Assn. awards its 1955 Western Open to Portland GC, Portland, Ore. . . . Western director Bob Hudson to sponsor the event . . . Every event Bob has engineered (Portland Open, PGA and Ryder Cup) has been highly successful.

Be sure the USGA Handicap System for Men poster displayed in your clubhouse or pro shop is the one printed in blue . . . The poster printed in black had lines transposed in the 85% Allowance Table.

Royal Canadian GA split its $12,166 for 1953 National Golf Day 50-50 between Canadian Red Cross and junior golf promotion.

West coast historians (?) whose book on sports promotion history recently was published can't qualify as authorities on the basis of their references to golf tournament circuit development . . . They omitted vast credit due to Bob Harlow . . . After Mrs. Tommy Armour and Mrs. Al Espinosa did the planning and letter-writing that actually started the tournament circuit and Hal Sharkey gave it push as a winter sideline to his New Jersey golf writing Harlow went in as a full-time worker . . . He really established the golf tournament circuit as big business in lean years . . . Nobody will tell you that any quicker than Fred Corcoran who succeeded Harlow and ably developed the circuit to its present fiscal and calendar dimensions.

Harlow was originator of the international pro matches played last October at Paris . . . The idea was Bob's and his enthusiasm for friendly international expert competition on golf courses and in restaurants got
