BOOK REVIEWS

CAN I HELP YOU? By W. J. (Bill) Cox.
Published by Ernest Benn, Ltd., Bouverie House,
Fleet St., London, E.C. 4. Price, 13 shillings.

The pleasant and portly Bill, member of British Ryder Cup teams in 1935 and '37, and one of the top teaching professionals of England, has put together in this book many of the questions and answers that have appeared in his department in Golf Illustrated of London. The material is very well illustrated.

This is one of the best jobs of collaboration between pupils and teacher in a golf book. Bill's students plainly set forth about every sort of problem to which the average golfer is heir (or heiress) and the professional gives constructive answers that aren't simply cold, dead print.

There is considerable reflection of American playing stars' contributions to simplification of golf technique, in Bill's scholarly solutions to his pupils' queries.

As far as we know there has been no golf book of this Q&A type done in the U. S. but there will be, as Cox has demonstrated it's a very helpful and interesting manner of treatment.
