Golf and the Soldier

ments. Eventually, all of the major commands send teams to the All-Army Tournament. This year the All-Army was held at Fort George G. Meade, Md., with the Second Army Team winning the championship by one stroke. Individually, Pvt. Dan Sikes of Fort Meade, won the championship, in a play-off.

After the All-Army tournament the All-Army team is selected to play against the other services at the Interservice Tournament. This tournament gives the soldier a chance to play against other very good service golfers and to play different courses. Since Army pay is hardly sufficient to allow most of the soldiers to play in the many tournaments held about the country, the All-Army and Interservice give him a chance to prove himself without the expense of entrance fees and other incidental tournament costs.

More and Better Courses

The future of golf in the Army is probably the same as in the country at large. It is going to increase. New courses are being built to meet the present need and help with the future demand.

In my command, I am encouraging other posts to employ golf course architects for their new construction. A man who has never played before or doesn't play well, is liable to want to play a lot more golf on an interesting, well laid-out course than on some sun burned, dry, and unimaginative 18. And, above all, the soldier who is healthfully playing a round of golf will be one less soldier who might be on a street corner, in a bar, or trying to drive an automobile a thousand miles on a week-end pass, a practice which has resulted in an alarming loss of life and limb to service men in traffic accidents.

Morale-wise, a long putt "clunking" into the cup goes a good long way towards keeping anybody happy and contented!

SWEETHEART IS PRO SHOP PATRON

Carolyn Stroupe, West Palm Beach, Fla., becomes a buyer in Harry Obitz' pro shop at Fred Waring's Shawnee Inn CC, Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa. Harry claims that into his pro shop come the world's most beautiful women golf customers.

Harry's interest in the pulchritudinous patrons is strictly platonic. He carries on a deep love affair with the shop cash register.

Miss Stroupe in the nation's "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," the fraternity that has in addition to its formal roster, a million barbershop choral auxiliaries.

USGA GIVES RIGHT ANSWER

Q. Am I correct in thinking that "Green Committee", and "Green fee" are correct, and that to add an "s" is an error?
