

GOLFDOM

The Business Journal of Golf

SEPTEMBER • 1955

25¢

The 215 yd. 16th at Tam O'Shanter has cost hopeful professionals strokes and thousands of dollars during the All-American and World's championships. An arm of the North branch of the Chicago river winds in from the tee and to the left of the green. The green is heavily contoured in three levels. In this view Littler is coming out of the bunker.