

CONTENTS

Swinging Around Golf	Herb Graffis	3
Pro Reminds Himself of What He Owes Members		37
Expect Favorable House Action on Curtis Bill		39
Over the Pro Shop Counter		42
Make Your Course New Again	Louis Bertolone	44
Taylor Designs Spreader, Mower Assemblies	O. J. Noer	48
Spoiled Members Boost Thompson's Sales		50
Planning and Promoting Benefit Tournaments	H. B. Harrison	54
Building Lots Sales Finance Antelope Hills	Al May	58
Answers to Turfgrass Questions ..	Fred V. Grau	62
Surprenant: World's Longest Course	Geoffrey S. Cornish	68
Roundup of Turf Conferences		70
National Golf Day Set for June 8		78
Reports on Research		80
Securing A Lease on Municipal Property	C. B. Hollingsworth	87
Promotions Build Business at Phoenix Range	Dean Smith	94
Principals of 6-Hole Course	Tom Simpson	101
Would Build More Courses on Air Bases	Bud Werring	102
Manufacturing News		113

Swinging Around Golf

(Continued from page 100)

Charleston, W. Va., planning 9- or 18-hole course to be located near Kanawha Airport . . . James C. Langlands, former pro, died recently in Newark, N. J., after an illness of three months . . . A native of Musselburgh, Scotland, Mr. Langlands served at Madison (Conn.) CC for more than 20 years.

Jack Adams now pro at Atlanta, Ga., General Depot GC, succeeding Phil Klemhofer, who has moved over to Druid Hills . . . Adams is working for Col. Sam Francis, former Nebraska U. football star, who is pres. of AGDGC . . . Forest Hills CC, Statesboro, Ga., recently introduced its new pro, Gene Giles, to members at a buffet dinner . . . Gene formerly served in Carrollton, Ga. . . Bill Keith, pro at Carlsbad, N. M. Municipal course, spent most of winter supervising rebuilding of a course in Harlingen, Tex.

Bill Janes named to succeed Ed Lewis as pro at Marysville (Calif.) Municipal GC . . . He was formerly asst. at Woodland (Calif.) CC . . . John McMullin, Alameda, Calif., youngster, who was low amateur in last year's Western Open, has turned pro and is asst. to George Gargovich at North Ridge CC in Sacramento . . . Board of mgrs. of CC of Ithaca, N. Y. studying sites for relocation of the club.

Work started on construction of new Indian Hill CC in Tuscaloosa, Ala. . . Course designed by Tom Nicol, local civil engineer, and Harold Williams, pro at Meadowbrook CC in Tuscaloosa . . . Old Woodland Hills CC reactivated in February when members of San Fernando (Calif.) CC took over its operation . . . Construction of DeSoto Lakes G & CC started late in March in Sarasota, Fla.

Jr. C of C, Fond du Lac, Wisc., withdraws support for proposed new course adjacent to city's sewage disposal plant . . . The reason: Plant will be expanded at some time in the future and undoubtedly would crowd any course that was built . . . Jaycees are trying to locate new site for the course . . . Total number of golfers who used Atlanta, Ga., municipal course in 1956 topped 1955 by nearly 7,000 . . . More than 217,000 rounds yielded revenue of $137,000.