

CONTENTS

Swinging Around Golf	Herb Graffis	3
New GCSA Convention Attendance Record	Joe E. Doan	37
Urzetta Makes Merchandising Shots Count		48
Pro Bank Credit	W. V. Register	50
How About Golf Cars	George Nevil	51
Golf Car Survey Charts		52-53
Grau's Answers	Fred V. Grau	54
More Lessons from Long Beach		60
Golf Is Big Business in L. A.	Verne Wickham	66
Pro Revenue Returns	Herb Graffis	72
Five Impressions That Bring Pro Sales	George Aulbach	107
Chaney Heads CMAA		110
Manufacturing News		121

Swinging Around Golf

(Continued from page 120)

completely rebuilt 18-hole course to be reopened Apr. 1 . . . Originally built in 1923, and known as Wolf Hollow, it was abandoned early in World War II . . . The clubhouse, with hotel facilities, has been remodeled . . . Walt Thiel, formerly at Glen Brook CC, Stroudsburg, Pa., is pro, and Floyd Starnier, supt.

Northwest GCSA pamphlet, just off the press, includes membership roster and by-laws . . . Henry Land, Jr., is pres. of the organization; Ken Putnam is vp and Milton Bauman, secy. treas. . . Women's Western Golf Assn. Junior Open will be played at Inverness GC, Palatine, Ill., Aug. 4-8 . . . This is the 32nd year for the event.

New Orleans CC to hold its 21st annual Invitation tournament, Mar. 26-30 . . . Championship flight to be medal play and all others, match play . . . Dale Morey has won the tournament for the last three years . . . Bob Nodus, a member of the Michigan State College golf team in 1957, becomes asst. to Ed Gauntt, Jr., pro at CC of Lansing . . . Corky Gaunt to take over as pro at new Michigan State 18-hole course on Apr. 1.

A onetime waitress who absconded with 27 pieces of silverware from Tam O Shanter CC, Niles, Ill., more than 25 years ago, recently returned it . . . The reason: She recently joined a church and wanted to get the theft off her conscience . . . Cary Middlecoff recently established a course record for the new Diplomat CC Hollywood, Fla., by shooting a 65 . . . The only trouble is that Cary might lower this one before GOLFDOM gets off the press.

W. C. (Dub) Bowie, formerly pro at Beauregard CC, De Ridder, La., moves over to Franklin (La.) CC . . . New Oakbourne CC, Lafayette, La., has 1,000 members . . . It was built largely due to the efforts of Bill Bass, Lafayette businessman . . . Gene Williams is pro . . . Southwestern Louisiana Institute preparing to launch golf instruction program for students this spring . . . Williams and Lee Como, pro at Lafayette Muny, helping Margaret McMillan of the school's physical ed dept. to get the project on its feet.

Ang Bozzuto, asst. to Al Renzetti in the extensive and successful instruction program that Al conducts for Westchester County (N.Y.) Recreation Committee, has been signed as pro by the Blauvelt (N.Y.) CC . . . This Renzetti is a busy guy . . . In addition to running the Westchester County winter program, he is pro at Empire State CC, chmn., Junior Golf committee of Metropolitan PGA and sec.-treas. of Westchester PGA.

Wallis Champion is manager of Goldthwaite's Texas Toro Co. new branch opened March 1 at 1623 Broadway, San Antonio, Tex. . . . Nice thing for Otto Grieshaber, supt. El Rio CC, Tuscon, Ariz., when Associated Press story widely carried John Barnum's remark from Tuscon Open: "El Rio's greens are the best we've played on all winter."