

Swinging around Golf

NEWS OF THE GOLF WORLD IN BRIEF

Joe Sanders, widely known veteran supt. now construction head of Tubac Valley CC, Tumacacori, Ariz. . . . John S. Knight, co-chm., PGA 1960 championship, Joseph Magnus, prominent insurance executive and former Western Golf Assn. official, and other golfers prominent in business world, are conducting a campaign to get Jock Hutchison long overdue recognition through election to PGA Hall of Fame . . . Jock won PGA in 1920, British Open in 1921 and many other tournaments . . . He was big money-raiser with Evans, Jones and others in World War I Red Cross exhibitions.

Mighty pleasant to see prominent families continuing in golf business . . . For instance, Charley Sawtelle, head of the Sawtelle Equipment Co. in Mamaroneck, now has Edward Worthington, Jr., in his organization . . . His father, Ned, now retired and living at Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., was an official of the Worthington Mower Co., Buckwood Inn, Shawnee CC and other of the extensive Worthington interests . . . Frank Marean, son-in-law of Chet Sawtelle, who with his brother, Ross, owns Sawtelle Bros., Danvers, Mass., equipment and supply house, now is on the Sawtelle sales staff . . . Frank married Judy Sawtelle . . . Judy was captain of the Connecticut College sailing team and won the Women's Intercollegiate sailing championship two consecutive years . . .

HERB GRAFFIS

She is a granddaughter of the noted naval architect and yacht racer, John Alden.

Big celebration — golf and gala dinner — at Prince Georges CC, Landover, Md., with members and prominent pro and amateur guests honoring the club's pro, Al Houghton for his 20 years of expert and cheerful help . . . Jim MacDonald, Toledo Blade golf writer, asks golf writers of other states to note Ohio's standing with three national champions: Jackie Nicklaus of Columbus, men's amateur titleist; Barbara McIntire, Toledo, women's amateur; and Judy Rand of Aurora, USGA Girls' Junior champion . . . Miss McIntyre is a protegee of Heather Downs CC pro, Harry Moffitt, former pres., PGA . . . W. J. Sime, Hopkins, Minn., building 18-hole course.

The late Vinnie Richards will have a monument in merry memories wherever survivors of sports in the Era of Wonderful Nonsense gather . . . He had a rainbow of color every waking moment in tennis competition and in frolic . . . He was as exceptionally sound and successful in sports business as he was in amateur and professional play and raised Dunlop to a major position in U. S. golf ball sales.

Lou de Garmo was another one of the colorful veterans in sports who recently lost the Big Decision . . . Lou died at the age of 70 of a heart attack at his home in Riverside, Conn. . . . He was active as

GOLFDOM

33rd Year

October, 1959

FRONT COVER — Judging by those figures up front, you might conclude that golf course architects are the hardest working group of men in the country. Practically all of them have put in the fullest kind of a year. Bob Baldock (left), shown with Walter Buckingham, green chmn. at Corral de Terra CC, Salinas, Calif., is no exception. He has built his share of the 202 new courses, has several others in the blueprint stage.

Golfdom is published monthly except Nov. and Dec. at Rochelle, Ill. Acceptance under Section 34-64, P.L.&R. Authorized. Please address all advertising, circulation & editorial correspondence to GOLFDOM, 407 S. Dearborn St., Chicago 5.

October, 1959