The Book of Golf. By Louis T. Stanley. Published by Max Parrish, London. U. S. Distributor: Sportshelf, Box 634, New Rochelle, N. Y. Price $9.75.

Stanley is an able observer of top quality golf, a clear writer and an assiduous photographer. In this big new book he has covered with type and pictures a broad field of shotmaking technique as demonstrated by foremost American and British men and women pros and amateurs. No great new "secrets" are discovered but the book is a clear and useful presentation of what makes the stars click. Stanley's views on a wide range of golfing personalities, performances, methods, courses and elements that account for the atmosphere of the game, are in the informative vein of clubhouse conversation.

Golf on My Pillow. By George Houghton. Published by Stanley Paul, London. U. S. Distributor: Sportshelf, Box 634, New Rochelle, N. Y. Price $1.25.

This is a paperback reprint of the entertaining letters from the Golf Addict to his son. It is decorated with Golf Addict Houghton's illustrations. Houghton is the best of the golf cartoonists and a fellow whose spirited writing gets to the heart of the game. He is a big seller in Britain and is beginning to score well with American golfers.

A Guide for Green Committee Members of Golf Clubs. United States Golf Assn., 40 E. 38th st., New York 16, N. Y. 25 cents.

This 16-page pamphlet was compiled by William H. Bengueyfield, Western dir. of the USGA green section from material derived from correspondence, articles and speeches of green chmn., supts., green section dirs., and others. It includes articles on club organization charts, duties of the green chmn. and his committee, long range planning, course budgets and public relations. There are also sections devoted to the handling of authority, the supt., contracts, the USGA's role in turf programs and a list of articles that have appeared in past issues of the USGA Journal that are designed to help the green chmn. and others concerned with turf.
