Golf Record

7 days to Better Golf. Long play record, two sides. Distributed by Eddie Mays and Bobby Grayson, Inc., 4412 S. W. Corbett, Portland, Ore. Price $7.95.

This training in "controlled relaxation" is intended to supplement pro instruction to golfers who often are so tense and stiff that they are hopeless. It is as difficult to learn to relax as it is when the doctor tells you to quit worrying when he sends you a hell of a bill. On the sides of this record a fellow with a gentle, almost hypnotic, voice gives you directions on how to unknit your nerves and get them in tone to subconsciously apply a formula for whipping the big shots or for pitching, chipping or putting.

Maybe the record has a hunch for getting some pros to relax in their teaching and give the pupil a good example.

This record possibly will help a pro handle some of his problem cases of golfers who start with tight grips and get everything, even the head, tight.
