D'Angelo Describes Changes in Women's Open Layout

According to Jimmy D'Angelo, the professional there, quite a few changes are being made in the Dunes Golf and Beach Club course, Myrtle Beach, S. C., for the 10th Women's Open. The event will be played at the club June 28-30.

Major changes involve four holes. No. 6 is being reduced from 415 to 375 yards and is rated a par 4. No. 12 is being cut back from 170 to 153 yards. No. 15 is being lengthened to a par 5 hole, being increased from 365 to 462 yards, while No. 18 is being cut back from 510 to 390 and a par 4. Most of the Dunes' fairways are being drawn in to 45 yards width in the landing areas and to 35 yards in the green areas.

Both Sides Par 36

The first 9 will play to 3,240 yards and the second to 3,160. Both are par 36s. The women's course record of 76 is held by Mrs. Kent Stratford, Summerville, S. C. Billy Joe Patton holds the men's record of 69. He shot it from the championship tees over 6,900 yards.

According to D'Angelo, No. 18 is the most difficult hole on the course since in most cases the player is hitting into the wind. Nos. 4, 6, 7 and 13 also are rated as being extremely tough.

PGA Schedules "Hole-in-One" Contest for September 3

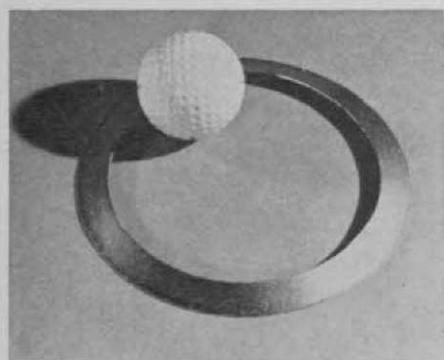

More than 100,000 golfers are expected to take part in the annual PGA national hole-in-one contest, which will be held on Sept. 3. Any golfer who scores or comes closest to scoring an ace on any of the courses entered in the contest will receive club, sectional and national awards, according to Lou Strong, PGA pres.

Waryan Heads Committee

Don Waryan, national vp from Hopkins, Minn., heads the hole-in-one committee. The event, in its sixth year, was originated by Leonard B. Schmutte, former PGA vp and longtime pro at the Findlay (O.) CC. He was chairman of this activity from 1957 through 1960.

If a club holds a separate contest for men and women, two club awards will be presented, one to the woman and one to the man winning the contest at the club.

Applications for entries must be received

CUP-LESS

The NEW, practical practice putting target rings. . .

Easy on greens—
Easy on golfers!

- Eliminate constant cutting and re-cutting of putting cup holes on practice greens.
- Eliminate player stooping and bending to remove balls from putting cups.
- Eliminate concentration of turf wear and tear on practice green surfaces.
- Allow players to choose their own practice putting lines.
- Get more mileage out of practice putting greens — save on maintenance costs!

CUP-LESS practice putting target rings have inside diameter of 4¼ inches (same size as regulation putting cups), are easily moved with putter blade to any location on green — spreading traffic wear and tear over entire green surface instead of localizing it. . .

Open Evans Chapter House at Ohio State University

The Evans Scholars Foundation is establishing both a chapter and chapter house at Ohio State University. Ohio State becomes the eighth major university at which a chapter has been activated, according to W. F. Souder, Jr., pres. of the Western Golf Association, sponsor of the Foundation.

Twenty-four Ohioans are attending college this year on Evans scholarships and 16 of them are Ohio State students. Next year, 25 youngsters, the minimum number for a new chapter, are expected to attend Ohio State on caddie scholarships. Western Golf has leased a property at 1909 Waldeck St. in Columbus to house the students and plans to purchase a permanent site within the next year.

A total of 443 Evans Scholars are enrolled in 26 universities throughout the U.S. this year. Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Northwestern, Marquette and Minnesota have chapter houses. The four-year scholarships are valued at more than $3,000.

To qualify for a scholarship, a boy must be an outstanding caddie at a WGA member club for at least two years, must graduate in the upper 25 per cent of his high school class and must need financial assistance in order to attend college. Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis taking the above factors into consideration.

Oh, Well, That's Life!

Every gripe we hear from the golfer we can match with ten. We have to keep our mouths shut because we are expected to perform miracles and give our friends who pay to play, well groomed golf courses at all times regardless of weather.
