

indicate clubface roughness doesn't increase backspin, the average backspin is "much greater with a rough-face club." Hence, regulations will be continued. Tests to determine resilience of golf balls won't result in any change in ball regulations except after a review of "tentative rule" with ball manufacturers, if a change is suggested.

Handicap: Investigation of possibility of USGA calculating and issuing handicaps based on USGA system is "inconclusive." It is questionable whether "enough clubs or players would be willing to pay for such service." This, at least, defers the alarm of sectional associations that USGA might reduce an important source of their income by competing in the handicap card business. The new USGA handicap record form, making low scores more conspicuous, was adopted.

Membership: This reached a new high for 16th consecutive year. A total of 2,548 clubs now belong to the USGA.

Green Section: Sponsored a new edition of Musser's "Turf Management." At annual meeting presented to Prof. Lawrence S. Dickinson second annual green section award for his invaluable work in establishing at University of Mass., Amherst, the first course in turf management, and for pioneering in course maintenance cost study and turf research application. The green section's national research coordinator and Mid-continent director, Marvin H. Ferguson, is preparing a booklet on maintenance problems affected by course design and construction. The green section visiting service to subscribers increased in 1961 to 1,268. The service has 823 courses enrolled.

Women: Three former USGA Girls' Junior champions were in the 1961 USGA Women's amateur field. Baltusrol, where 1961 USGA Women's Open was won by Mickey Wright, was host to its 10th USGA championship. A new system of course rating has many courses re-rated for women's par.

Public Links: Honolulu won the Harding trophy. USGA committee says "Michigan Public Links GA could well serve as a model for all state public links associations."

Girls' Junior: New award of pin to girls who have played in five or more USGA Girls' Junior championships given to nine who played in 1961 championships at Broadmoor CC, Seattle.

Seniors: A total of 477 competed in qualifying rounds in 31 sections for 116 of the 120 places available at the seventh annual USGA Seniors; four didn't have to qualify for the championship played at Southern Hills CC, Tulsa.

Bob Jones Award: This award was made at the 1962 meeting to Horton Smith who, due to illness, was unable to accept in person. Jimmy Thomson accepted for Smith.

General Counsel: Continued effort to get Federal tax on club dues and initiation fees reduced from 20 to 10 per cent.

Treasurer: Although the USGA anticipated a deficit there was net income of $29,164. Unappropriated surplus at end of 1961 fiscal year was $381,083. Income for year was $330,225 of which net income from tournaments was $43,728 (after deducting pro rate of administrative and general expenses.) Open net was $84,437; Amateur was $18,918; and Women's Amateur was $11,027.
