Pacific Northwest Group Gives Caddies A Lift

The Pacific Northwest Golf Assn., now in its 65th year, had assets totalling nearly $20,000 at the close of its fiscal period in 1962. The bulk of these consisted of cash in the Association's general, reserve and scholarship funds. More than $7,400 was contributed to Western GA's Evans Scholarship fund in 1962, according to Pacific Northwest's annual report.

About 550 players took part in the four major tournaments sponsored by PNGA in 1962. These were the Men's and Women's Open and the Boys' and Girls' tournaments. The Association also held its first intra-zone team match during the season with teams from Washington and British Columbia participating.

Helped 14 Boys

In addition to contributing to its share of the cost of Evans Scholarships of the Western Golf Assn., PNGA helped defray the expenses of 14 youngsters who attended Pacific Coast colleges in 1961-62. Since the local scholarship plan was undertaken, 12 boys have received college

Helms Foundation Recognizes Luxford's Golf Contributions

When the Helms Athletic Foundation compiled information on Maurie Luxford, prior to inducting him into its Hall of Fame, it unearthed these facts: Maurie came to the U.S. from New Zealand in 1919 after having served 4½ years with an Anzac battalion in World War I. He has belonged to Lakeside GC in L.A. for 36 years and has been president of the Southern Calif. and Calif. GAs at some time in his life. He is president of the L.A. recreation and parks commission and has been tournament director of the Bing Crosby pro-am for the last 18 years. Fittingly enough, Maurie has received a flock of awards during his career. A good deal of his work in behalf of the game has been on a no-salary basis.
