N. C. Firm Can "Juniorize" Clubs for Professional

The newly formed Niron Co., Inc. is now refinishing and plating irons for pro shops. Beautiful finishes on used clubs open a tremendous opportunity for getting old clubs out of the way, maintaining the market price of top quality pro clubs and competing with price cutters by offering refinished top quality clubs. Profits from the golfer who has a good used set and wants to keep it or can't afford a new quality set also can be realized. Niron specializes in refinishing "Juniorized" clubs.

Niron Co., Inc. was formed by John S. Sokol, PGA member, to perform this needed service for the pro and golfer. Irons are refinished, plated if not stainless, regripped or reshafted and regripped.

A price list showing all costs of service can be obtained by writing to Niron at 206 B N. College Ave., Newton, N.C.

National Junior Golf Camp

The National Junior golf camp will be held on the 50-acre Smith-Walbridge camp, Maxwellton CC and South Shore CC, Syracuse, Ind., from June 28 through July 3. Denny Champagne, veteran PGA pro, is the director. Classes are open to boys and girls, 8 through 18. There is also a special day camp for adults 18 and over. The Junior camp fee is $64.50 and includes room, meals, lessons and green fees. The adult fee is $39.50. Inquiries should be sent to Smith-Walbridge Camp, Syracuse.

A color motion picture of the 1964 PGA Seniors Teacher Trophy tournament is now available from Modern Talking Picture Service, Inc., 3 E. 54th st., New York. The 16mm film, which lasts 20 minutes, can be obtained free of charge.
