June 1 Deadline for Ladies' PGA School

Officials of the fifth Ladies' PGA National Golf School have announced that June 1 is the final date for registration. The 1964 session is co-sponsored by the Ladies' PGA and the University of Vermont and will be held in Burlington, Vt., June 22-26. Attendance is limited to teachers of golf at recognized institutions of learning, golf clubs and civic groups.

Shirley Spork and Betty Jane Wills are co-chairmen of the 1964 school. This year's faculty will include Patty Berg, Shirley Englehorn, Vonnie Colby, Peggy Kirk Bell, Ellen Griffin and other members presently competing on the Ladies' PGA tour.

Since its inception in 1960, the Ladies' PGA school has had a total attendance of 289. The school provides instruction for teachers, workshops and clinics in merchandising and sessions on the selection and care of golf equipment, rules, and course management.

Complete information and registration forms are available from the Ladies' UGA National Golf School, Southwick Building, University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt.
