King Elected to Second Term by Western Golf

Thomas V. King, Evanston, Ill., was elected to a second term as president of the Western Golf Association at the 66th annual meeting of that organization, held in early Dec. Six other officers of WGA were re-elected and three new officers were installed.

Holdover officers are Frederic H. Corrigan, Cameron Eddy, Arthur R. Millas and George H. Webb, vps; Clifford Domin, secretary; and Harold T. Ames, treasurer. New officers are Adolor Petit, Jr. and Erv Parent, vps; and Justin A. Stanley, general counsel.

Big Applicant Increase

Western Golf is administrator of the Evans Scholarship Foundation. In 1964, a record total of 165 college scholarships was awarded and there was a 25 per cent increase in the number of applicants. Nearly 500 youngsters are attending college through Evans grants and in 1964, 101 were graduated. The Evans alumni now totals more than 800.

At the December meeting it was announced that the Western Open will return to Tam O'Shanter, Niles, Ill., July 1-4. The 65th Western Amateur will be played at Point O' Woods CC, Benton Harbor, Mich., the week of July 28.
