been going for four years . . . "Practical Articles" in the January issue included "Tifton Hybrid Bermudagrasses in USA" by E. Ray Jensen and news from Japan's regional turf conferences . . . We didn't read them, though, in the raw Japanese.

Lengthen Keller course and enlarge practice fairway for St. Paul Open, which is being boosted to $100,000 . . . Gil Foster, Keller supt. who supervised the expansion work, is designing several courses in northern Minnesota where he is a golf consultant to numerous resorts . . . Foster also built and operated a Par 3 course at Gem Lake, Minn., which he has sold to Ned Dwyer.
