Sandra Paine of East Orange, N.J. and Duke University won the fifth Virginia Collegiate tournament, sponsored by Mary Baldwin College, in Staunton in April. She defeated Carol Duke (I), the runnerup, by five strokes. The girls are shown receiving their awards from Frank L. Summers, Jr., executive committee member of the Virginia State Golf Association. Thirty-three girls took part in the Staunton tournament.

Ladies PGA Golf School to be Held in Ohio

The sixth LPGA National Golf School will be held July 5-9 at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, O. Co-chairmen are Shirley Spork and Penny Boussoulas.

The school staff will include LPGA members Patty Berg, Peggy Kirk Bell, Kathy Cornelius, Sally Doyle, Shirley Englehorn, Ellen Griffin, Marlene Hagge, Ruth Jessen, Jo Ann Prentice, Kathy Whitworth, Amie Amiz'ch, and Irene Bretzlaff.

Morning and afternoon sessions will cover techniques of giving individual instruction, fundamentals of group teaching along with the cause and correction of errors. Evening sessions will include panel discussions, lectures on club care, merchandising, equipment selection, testing and evaluation methods and visual aids.

A golf tournament for all the school participants will be held the final day. The Barbara Rotvig award will be presented to the winner. The school will use Bowling Green State's new course, its practice fields, the university's indoor facilities and the Bowling Green CC course.
