of directors from nine to five, and reduce the number of committee members from five and six to one, or possibly two.

"Undoubtedly the best plan for club efficiency is to elect men of ability to the offices of President and Treasurer, and give them full powers to act on all important propositions of finance and general policy. If they do not succeed, elect other officers at the very first opportunity.

"The budget system with a liberal contingency fund, and if properly managed, is the only real way to manage a social organization.

"In our own case, after adopting the budget system we came out on the plus side for the past two years which was a proof of its efficiency after some years of being on the minus side.

"A good motto to follow is:

If you can't play, don't play."
