ARTICLES

- 36 Backfire From the Golf Boom—Lawsuits.....John F. Gleason Jr.
While pondering the profits to be made from the continuing increase in the number of golfers, also consider the probable effect inexperienced players will have on your club's accident rate
- 42 How NGF Can Help You.....Jerry Claussen
Among its many services to the golf industry, the National Golf Foundation provides assistance to groups planning new golf facilities or additions to existing facilities—and it's free
- 50 From Skepticism to Enthusiasm in a Decade.....William H. Bowers
Ten years ago Sea Island installed a semi-automatic irrigation system, the significance of which went ignored by the golf industry. The system worked, its critics were nonplussed, and golf course irrigation finally moved into the 20th century
- 54 Grassing Up at Alvamar.....Jerry Claussen
This new Kansas public course faced unusual turf problems. Here's how it solved them
- 58 Cure for the Off-season Doldrums: Pros Turned Tour Guides.....Tom Fitzgerald
If you're a pro and your course is under a blanket of snow, what do you do? Instead of heading for warm-weather vacations or interim teaching assignments, some pros organize and conduct golf tours for club members. It's work, but it can pay off
- 69 Reports on Pro Shop Business: The Rains Came
Sales in the Eastern, Central and Western sections of the country were a washout—down as much as 25 per cent in one area. On top of this, many golfers are holding off on golf club purchases until the 1970 lines come out
