26 Reports on Pro Shop Business: Stability Marks the Season

Most pro shops report an increase in their sales over last year due mainly to good weather. But no sales records were set. Helping business were the surprising enthusiasm over doubleknits and unexpected golf bag sales as well as the great turn to lightweight steel shafts

31 Women Head Professionals?

Winning a golf tournament is easier for women professionals than becoming a head pro at a club

33 A New Look in Dimples

Uniroyal, employing research using aerodynamic principles, has introduced a regulation golf ball with hexagonal dimples

34 The Certified Superintendent Ben Chlevin

The Golf Course Superintendents Assn. of America has produced a long-awaited certification program. The association's executive director explains the program and its implications for the future of the superintendent in terms of job security, image and hiring practices

41 The New Philadelphia Story Jerry Olson

In 1964 the golf committee at Philadelphia CC was looking for a new superintendent, and they had a lot to offer—silver crabgrass, Poa annua and a parched course. They directed their job hunting efforts towards one superintendent: Warren Bidwell

44 From Tee to Ski Gerry Finn

Gerry Finn reports on a new revenue producer at the golf course during the winter—cross country skiing. Although limited now to resorts, this sport can be adapted to any type of golf course

48 Pinehurst of Colorado: A Management Success Story Jerry Claussen

Pinehurst's management has put business theory into practice—profitably. One secret of the club's success is its employee training program
