

NEW PRODUCTS

TRADITIONAL and contemporary seating for the country club comes from Buckstaff. Utilizing the durability and rich tones of solid oak along with the array of easy-to-care-for fabrics of today, Buckstaff furniture can become an asset in the clubhouse.

Circle 701 on free information card

CELEBRATING the Bicentennial with a flair is the idea behind a new red, white and blue golf flag from Lewis Line. Seven-feet in height, a white fiberglass pole features three color striping. The colorful flag has red and blue stars on a white field with USA/200 emblazoned on it. Flag material is nylon.

Circle 702 on free information card

A FULL line of club repair products comes from Golf Day and the Illinois firm is announcing a new Super Stripper that will remove old finishes faster. Golf Day Super Stains are also available in a number of colors including black, cherry red, mahogany and walnut.

Circle 703 on free information card

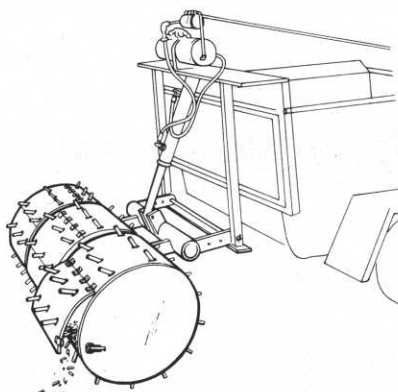

BUILT to take the every day punishment a country club golfer can dish out, Fore carpentering by Crown Industries can handle the gouging and twisting of spikes without showing wear. Constructed of hardwearing 100 percent continuous filament olefin pile on a reinforced non-stretch vinyl back, Fore is stain-resistant and easy to clean. Eight colors are available, ranging from red to gold.

Circle 704 on free information card

PRODUCTIVITY and profitability go hand-in-hand in the T.C.A. Aerator from Dedoes. Providing one-day course aeration, the T.C.A. unit can aerate any tee or green in 15 minutes. Two units are available, one for tees and greens and one for fairways. Able to operate in either forward or reverse, the fairway model can remove 180 clean plugs per revolution.

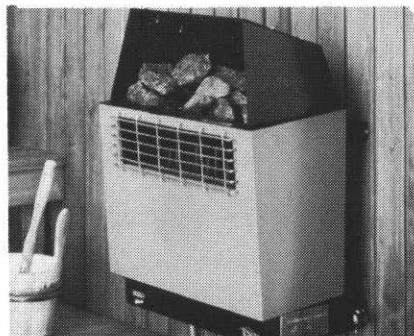

Circle 705 on free information card

BOOSTING your soft goods sales is a snap with Grand Paws athletic hose from Clossco. Seven different styles are available, five men's and two women's. Retail prices for the hose range between $1.50 to $2 per pair. Styling varies from solid white to white with multi-colored stripes. The hose are a blend of nylon and Orlon®.

Circle 706 on free information card

WANT a sauna, but don't want to bother with the added cost of installation, Helo-MacLevy has a new "Do-It-Yourself" pre-cut room kit on the market. Just supply Helo-MacLevy with the room dimensions and they furnish all material, pre-cut, along with illustrated installation instructions.

Circle 707 on free information card

INCORPORATING a design feature that helps the golfer point exactly toward the cup, the Win Putter from Jonal could be a big mover in the pro shop. Investment cast of stainless steel and silicone bronze, the putter is available in either right or left hand models.

Circle 708 on free information card

EXTENDING vehicle battery charges to new highs is the job of the "Big Forty" charger from Lester Electrical. On one charge, the unit can charge a 36 volt battery, up to 300 amp-hour types, to $\frac{3}{4}$ capacity in less than five hours. After the peak charge, the unit rate automatically tapers down to three amps, preventing overheating and excessive gassing. Use for both utility vehicles and golf cars is ideal.

Circle 709 in free information card

INCREASE shop hat sales with new Poplin Roll-Up hats from Mayflower-Medalist. Imported from abroad, the headwear has a suggested retail of $2.50 each.

Circle 710 on free information card

WEIGHING less than 25 pounds and with a retail price of around $100, the Caddylac motorized golf bag carrier is an innovation from Electric Sports Products. The unit has fingertip control and can make any grade easily.

Circle 711 on free information card

EMPTYING holding tanks is a thing of the past with the Envir-o-Pak comfort station by Modular Conceptual Systems. Through a biological process within specially designed toilets, the system needs no domestic water service or need of flush water removal.

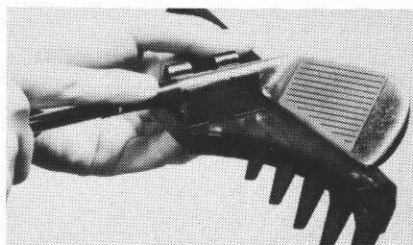

Circle 712 on free information card

AFTER several years of testing and research, AMF Ben Hogan has finally entered the durable golf ball market with its new Leader® model. The ball has the distance, trajectory and consistency of the tour-favorite Apex ball. The cover has a unique blend of thermoplastic resins, developed to give the product a good sounding, great feeling cover.

Circle 713 on free information card

COMPACT and portable, the Port-A-Rake from Al Sal Corporation provides the considerate golfer the ability to maintain sandtraps when course rakes are misplaced or taken. Made of rigid polypropylene, the 8-inch rake fits into its own small package when not in use.

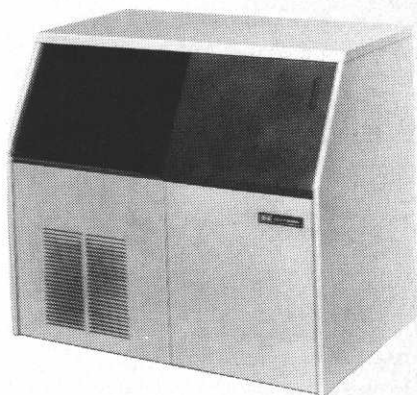

Circle 714 on free information card

FAIRWAYS and tees can get better spraying quality with two, new fiberglass units from Myers. Both models are easy to mount on the back of all utility vehicles. Lightweight and easy to handle, the sprayers include stainless steel booms with dripless nozzles, spray guns, anchor mounting kits and trailer kits.

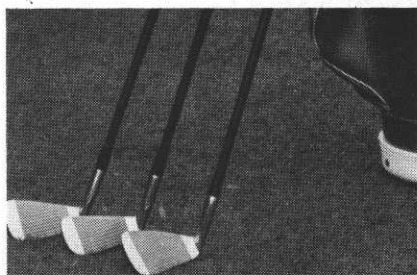

Circle 715 on free information card

REDUCING service time and cost, Scotsman introduces an ice machine with complete front service access. The AC30 Cuber has all its major operating components located in a convenient slide-out chassis located behind a front panel. Daily cube production is up to 265 pounds.

Circle 716 on free information card

FITTING the full range of irons in tip diameter and flex uniformity, Babcock & Wilcox introduces three new graphite shafts for irons. The first fits 2-4, the second 5-7 and the third 8-PW. The biggest plus of the shaft is its torque resistance.

Circle 717 on free information card