

NEW PRODUCTS

A UNIQUE dimple pattern is the secret behind the new Royal Master golf ball from Royal Golf. With a icosahedral system of 252 round air foils, the Royal Master guarantees maximum distance along with superior accuracy. The ball has a cut-resistant Dupont Surlyn cover for longer wear and the center core gives a good sound and feel.

Circle 701 on free information card

FOUR NEW shrub heads are now available from the Irrigation Division of the Toro Company. Designed with commercial application in mind, the heads are divided into stream rotor, stream spray, adjustable precipitation spray and adjustable low-angle head. Several models of heads are on the market in the four different head types.

Circle 702 on free information card

LOOKING for a way to design a distinctive tie for your country club? There are plenty of ideas from Wm. Chelsea Ltd. Classic dignity is assured in silk ties and two blends of polyester. Logos, names and other symbols are easy to reproduce. A free brochure telling the Chelsea story is available.

Circle 703 on free information card

COMMEMORATING its 100th anniversary, Spalding introduces its Legacy golf clubs. A rebirth of the 1953 Top-Flite model, Legacy is a tradition in functional excellence and beauty. The irons are investment cast with a thinner top line and slightly wide sole. The woods feature a vintage black finish with diamond pattern face screws.

Circle 704 on free information card

EASY maneuverability and fingertip blade height control are just two of the features in the 61-inch riding mower from Bob-Cat. Powered by either a 16 or 19 horsepower engine, the Bob-Cat has a twin hydrostatic transmission with a high-capacity cooling system.

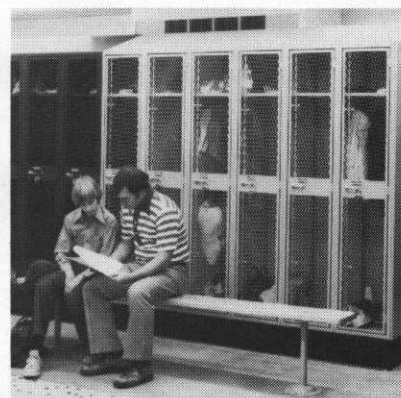

Circle 705 on free information card

AUTOMATICALLY grinding a professional cutting reel to a tolerance of 1/1,000 inch, the Pen-Gro Jupiter grinding machine gives precision service to grass-cutting equipment. A wet grinding method is used to minimize operator health exposure to metallic grinding dust.

Circle 706 on free information card

AN IDEAL clothing unit for the locker room, expanded metal lockers from Lyon Metal Products feature diamond-shaped steel mesh that allows maximum air circulation. The line includes single, double, triple and multiple tier units, as well as 24-inch wide models. Lockers are available in a choice of 18 distinctive color finishes.

Circle 707 on free information card

PERFECT BALANCE in a truly matched set of woods and irons is the watchword for clubs from Diamond Head Golf. The California-based firm uses the investment cast process in the irons and feature a fine toe-heel feel. Woods are hand crafted from select-premium laminated maple.

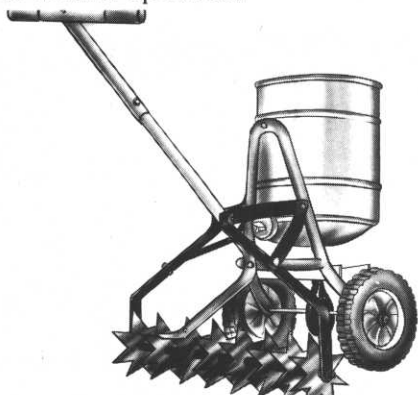

Circle 708 on free information card

COMPLETE in one, simple unit, is an iced salad bar from Bloomfield Industries. The unit contains ample room for basic ingredients in separate trays, protected by a plastic sneeze guard. Dimensions of the unit are 22 3/4" x 33 3/4" x 10".

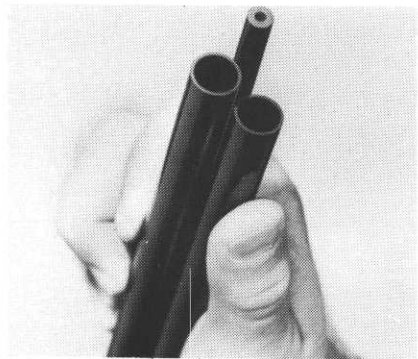

Circle 709 on free information card

INSTALLING QUICKLY on many popular models of rotary spreaders, a new aerator unit from Turf Maker has emerged on the market. The Cyclo-Spiker is available in widths of 22" and 28". The unit secures to the spreader without drilling or special attachments. Aeration is achieved with little additional effort while the spreader is in normal operation.

Circle 710 on free information card

WITH a high resistance to torque, the Americana shaft from Graphite Technology gives excellent performance with no sacrifice in shaft weight. The shaft comes in a standard length of 45 inches with flexes L-X. The exclusive "taper within a taper" feature increases the tip's wall thickness over that of the grip end.

Circle 711 on free information card

ADDING to its already growing number of soft good products, AMF Ben Hogan comes out with four new shirts and more colors and styles for its existing models. The new shirts feature a blend of 65 percent Dacron® polyester and 35 percent Pima cotton. New shirt prints available are the Echo, large hounds-tooth in two coordinating colors on white, and Sundance, a geometric pattern in one color on white. All sizes are available and suggested retail price per shirt is $21.

Circle 712 on free information card

OFFERING the options of two versatile oven units, the Model RE-43 is the latest in food preparation from Blodgett. Both roasting and baking are possible with the model, but the oven can also be utilized for either operation separately. All controls are at eye level and all rack positions are at easy-to-reach working height.

Circle 713 on free information card

MODERN fencing for the grounds is now being marketed by Mr. Chain in two new models. A 3-piece and 5-piece kit are both on the market, constructed of high-impact, weather-resistant, maintenance-free plastic. These practical and decorative units offer a wide variety of uses ... bordering walks and driveways, protecting flower beds and enclosing patio and pool areas.

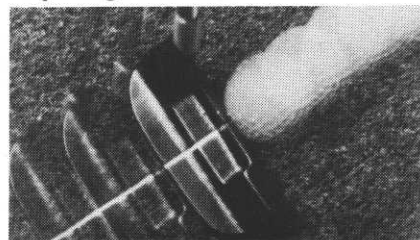

Circle 714 on free information card

QUICK preparation of creamed foods is a snap with basic White Sauce from John Sexton & Co. Whether the bill of fare is creamed soups, vegetables or entrees, White Sauce can save time and labor because it requires no cooking. It can be used as is or as a base for other sauces.

Circle 715 on free information card

HEEL and toe weighted for assurance of a precision feel and balance, the Magic Stroke putter from Matzie is a new addition to the Velvet Touch line. A chemically-treated black finish means no sun glare and a long white sighting line helps align the ball.

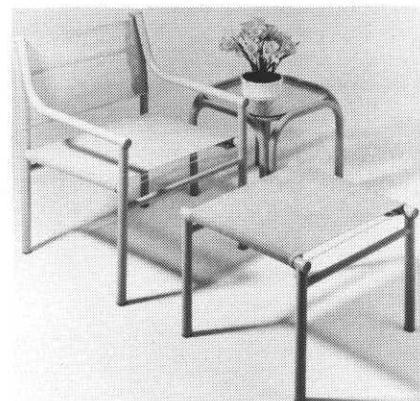

Circle 716 on free information card

TEE MARKERS made of heavy-gauge tubular steel are now available from Standard Golf. Shaped in the form of a torpedo, the marker is fuse coated with a specially formulated compound to resist chipping, fading or rusting. The markers are 2 3/8" in diameter, 14" long with five inch spikes.

Circle 717 on free information card

EXCLUSIVE acrylic canvas seating is the top advantage highlighting Commandant contemporary outdoor furnishings for the club by Brown Jordan. Commandant offers a distinctive look with clean, high style lines that don't sacrifice comfort and durability. Several rich color tones are available with colorfastness and ease of cleaning.

Circle 718 on free information card

ATTEMPTING to meet virtually any specification requirement, Oasis water coolers from Ebco blend tastefully into designer interiors. Offering both attractiveness and space savings, Oasis coolers come in a variety of painted and vinyl finishes.

Circle 719 on free information card