

Golfdom

AUGUST 2000 • VOLUME 8 • NUMBER 16

Winds of Change

28

Head Case

If golf balls are flying, golf course workers should be wearing hard hats, according to OSHA. But the debate continues on whether or not helmets should be required.

By Larry Aylward

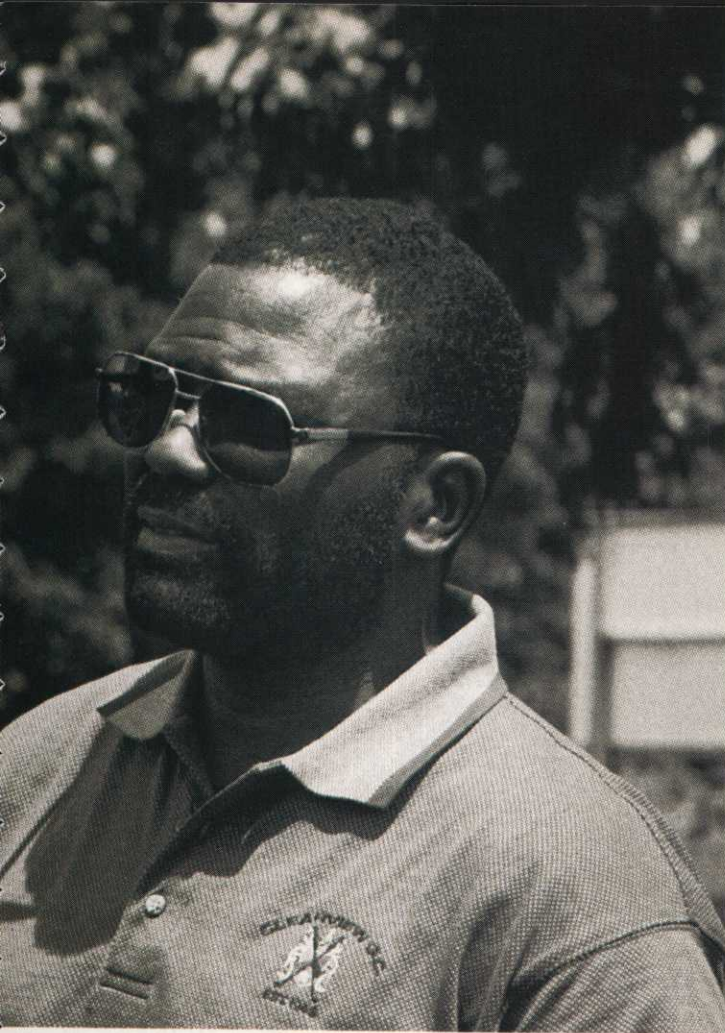

36

In the Dark

Nighttime is the right time for a few maintenance operations, but working after dusk isn't viable for most staffs.

By Shane Sharp

columns

- 8 Flagstick
A Stranger in a Strange Land
- 17 Shades of Green
Time to Put on a Coat of Class
- 35 Golf by Design
Let's Stop Giving Golf a Bad Name
- 46 Money Shot
Are You Keeping Track of the Track?
- 56 Human Touch
Good People Don't Grow on Trees
- 68 Out of Bounds
Child's Play

cover story

BY FRANK H. ANDORKA JR.

Golf is trying to shed its white image.

What will it take — and how can you help?

18

40

Don't Cry Over Spilled Chemicals

Preparation can minimize the damage caused by an accident.

By Frank H. Andorka Jr.

49

A Close Eye on Rye

The future of perennial ryegrass may hinge on its resistance to deadly gray leaf spot.

By Mark Leslie

54

A Lesson From Linksland

Let's allow the architects to do what they should.

By Mark Leslie

About the cover

Art director Lisa Lehman took a simple, yet powerful, approach to get the point across for our cover story.

News with a hook

- 10 Golden Opportunity
- 12 The Committed Golfer

real-life solutions

- 61 Superintendent Gives Thumbs Up to Burn-Down Herbicide
Product proves to be fast, simple and cost-efficient.

departments

- 7 Events
- 10 Off the Fringe
- 14 Hole of the Month
- 62 Tips: Cup Cutting
- 64 Leaders
- 64 The Company Line
- 66 Classifieds