

Golfdom

JULY 2001 • VOLUME 57 • NUMBER 7

30

Changing of the Guard

Taking over management of a course from a legendary superintendent can be daunting. But preparation and planning can smooth the transition.

By Frank H. Andorka Jr.

39

Black's Magic

Bethpage State Park's renaissance proves a run-down public golf course can be revitalized — and host a U.S. Open.

By Geoff Shackelford

42

Smooth as a Gravy Sandwich

An assistant superintendent ponders his profession while playing 18.

By Ron Furlong

Career and Family

The Balancing Act

DOUGLASS OSTER

46

Summertime Blues?

USGA agronomists warn what turf diseases to watch out for and where.

By Larry Aylward

51

The Never-ending Story

Poa is friend and foe, depending on where you live and what your golfers expect.

By Pat Jones, Publisher/Editorial Director

cover story

BY LARRY AYLWARD

How do you manage a successful career with a meaningful family life? One superintendent says it takes focus, communication, dedication — and the list goes on. Part 2 in our Living Well Series.

24

About the cover

Bel Air, Md.-based illustrator Bob Lynch captures an important topic — balancing career and family — through a vivid and thought-provoking cover.

News with a hook

14 Deere Runs to Irrigation Business

columns

- 11 Flagstick
Nothing to Fear
But Fear Itself
- 12 Pin High
Who's No. 1
In Your Busy Life?
- 23 Shades of Green
Associations Still Have Their Souls
- 34 Designs On Golf
Restore Public Golf Courses — Now
- 57 Dave's World
Aerification Is Not A Dirty Word
- 64 Out of Bounds
Homemade Ice Cream

real-life solutions

- 52 Faith in Fertiligation
System improves cost, flexibility of superintendent's fertility program.

departments

- 6 Events
- 8 Going Postal
- 14 Off the Fringe
- 20 Hole of the Month
- 59 Tips: Trimmers
- 60 Leaders
- 62 Company Line
- 63 Classifieds