

Golfdom

JULY 2003 • VOLUME 59 • NO. 7

The

SPECIAL REPORT

FQPA

Food Quality Protection Act

58

The Keepers of Hallowed Turf

The acclaim that comes with growing grass at the classical courses is all it's cracked up to be. And so is the pressure.

By Larry Aylward

75

Hold Water

Superintendents conserve more water through wise irrigation.

By Anthony Pioppi

70

Summer Maintenance

Watching for West Nile

Superintendents are wary of the disease threat, which is now nationwide.

By Robin Suttell

79

Water Wisely

These products can help you irrigate efficiently — and then some

Editor's note: In this issue Golfdom reports on various aspects of summer maintenance, including how to prepare your course to combat West Nile virus. See the summer maintenance logo for stories pertaining to this topic.

cover story

BY FRANK H. ANDORKA JR.

You may have heard of the FQPA. But do you realize how it could affect the golf course maintenance business — and your jobs?

30

About the cover

The U.S. Capitol never looked so serious. Well, the FQPA is a serious issue. Photo by Digital Stock and design by Lisa Lehman.

columns

- 8 Flagstick
Cutting the Blue Blazers Some Slack
- 22 Pin High
Augusta and the Sounds of Silence
- 24 Shades of Green
Unsung Heroes Deserve Respect
- 29 Designs On Golf
Approach Should Remain Relevant
- 87 Dave's World
Welcome to Les Turf Miserables
- 90 Out of Bounds
Baseball Gloves

departments

- 12 The Big Picture
- 14 Off the Fringe
- 26 Hole of the Month
- 89 Classifieds

80

Real-Life Solutions

Syringing with Style

It requires use of the senses, especially sight and feel, as well as keen concentration.

By Larry Aylward

84

Talking Shop

Mechanics sound off on what to look for in a lift, what tools are absolutely essential to their jobs and what they would create if they were "manufacturers for a day."

By Frank H. Andorka Jr.

News with a hook

- 14 Generics or Bust
- 16 Trees vs. Turf

41

TurfGrass Trends

This month, Golfdom's practical research digest for turf managers discusses billbug control and a new fungicide to control dollar spot. Pages 41-56.

