

Golfdom

DECEMBER 2004 • VOLUME 60 • NO. 12

The Golfdom Report

22

Better Days But ...

There are signs the golf industry is pulling itself out of the economic doldrums. But the financial slump isn't over yet, experts say.

By Larry Aylward

34

Time For an Annual Review

It started off great, what with Phil winning the Masters. But things started to get ugly around U.S. Open time.

By Geoff Shackelford

40

Up and Down

A look back at the year in statistics and sayings, including results of our recent superintendent survey and the best quotables of the year.

46

Manners Matter

Proper etiquette among players has diminished on the golf course. What can superintendents do to help it return?

By Brian H. Kehrl

52

Sowing the Seeds of R&D

Companies continue to search for top turfgrass species.

By Peter Blais

cover story

BY GOLFDOM STAFF

Here's an in-depth look inside the state of your industry.

22-50

About the cover

We think this silhouette of a golfer says something about the state of the industry – while things are getting better, there are still some unknowns. (By MediImages and Tom Johnson of Advanstar Communications)

columns

- 6 Flagstick
Wee in Size, Otto Was Big in Heart
- 8 Pin High
He's Just Looking for Steady Work
- 20 Shades of Green
Reach Out ... And Influence Somebody
- 56 Designs On Golf
Too Much Tech, Not Enough Sense
- 80 Public Opinion
Unlikely Source Gives Good Advice
- 114 Out of Bounds
MP3s

departments

- 10 Big Picture
- 12 Off the Fringe
- 18 Hole of the Month
- 111 Company Line
- 113 Classifieds

58 Clear-Cut Conclusion

Sharp reels are an essential component to assuring proper turf management.

By Thomas Skernivitz

82 In the Minority

What are young professionals doing to land their first superintendent jobs? Sometimes it's a matter of taking advantage of a not-so-super opportunity.

By Luke Wagner

84 Weed Control

It's winter, and a Northern superintendent's thoughts turn to weed control.

Compiled by Larry Aylward

News with a hook

- 12 Industry Loses a 'First Lady'

63 TurfGrass Trends

This month, Golfdom's practical research digest for turf managers discusses overseeding of perennial ryegrasses on bermudagrass fairways, among other topics. See pages 63-78.