

Golfdom

DECEMBER 2005 • VOLUME 61 • NO. 12

The Golfdom Report

26

Respectable Showing

The golf industry continues to inch its way out of the economic doldrums.

By Larry Aylward and Thomas Skernivitz

34

Annual Review

The good (more dialogue), the bad (increased costs) and the ugly (slow play) of 2005 — and plenty more.

By Geoff Shackelford

40

Up and Down

A look back at the year in statistics and sayings, including results of our recent superintendent survey and the best quotables of the year from some of the industry's most interesting characters.

44

What Can Brown Do for You?

For starters, it can save a few bucks . . . as well as the environment.

By Ron Furlong

cover story

Here's an in-depth look at the state of your industry.

26-48

About the cover

Art Director Carrie Parkhill picked this photo by Image100 for our cover. Parkhill says it provides a good "view" of the industry.

49

Revealing the Spin on Topdressing

Top 10 tips, courtesy of the major manufacturers.
By Thomas Skernivitz

◀ Corporate Profiles
Special advertising section featuring some of the industry's top companies.

columns

- 8 Pin High
A 'Ray of Hope' in New Orleans
- 22 Shades of Green
Reviving the People's Power
- 24 Designs On Golf
If I Were Buying for the Bigwigs ...
- 96 Out of Bounds
Home Theatres

departments

- 12 Big Picture
- 14 Off the Fringe
- 95 Classifieds

News with a hook

- 14 Hand-held Controllers Revisited

51

TurfGrass Trends

This month Golfdom's practical research digest for turf managers discusses plant-parasitic nematode control. See pages 51-64.