

Golfdom

SEPTEMBER 2007 • VOLUME 63 • NO. 9

Are YOU Fiscal

Golfdom's Fifth-Annual Budget Guide

36

How to Tackle the Annual Budget... And Enjoy It!

It's not as horrible as you might think. Here are some tips to make the process ... shall we dare say ... fun.

By Ron Furlong

42

Post-Patent Exploits

Superintendents turn to generics to save money.

By David Frabotta

50

On History or a Hunch?

Superintendents discuss how they budget for pest management.

By Anthony Pioppi

60

Sand Dollars

Golf course maintenance budgets get bigger because of bunker maintenance boom.

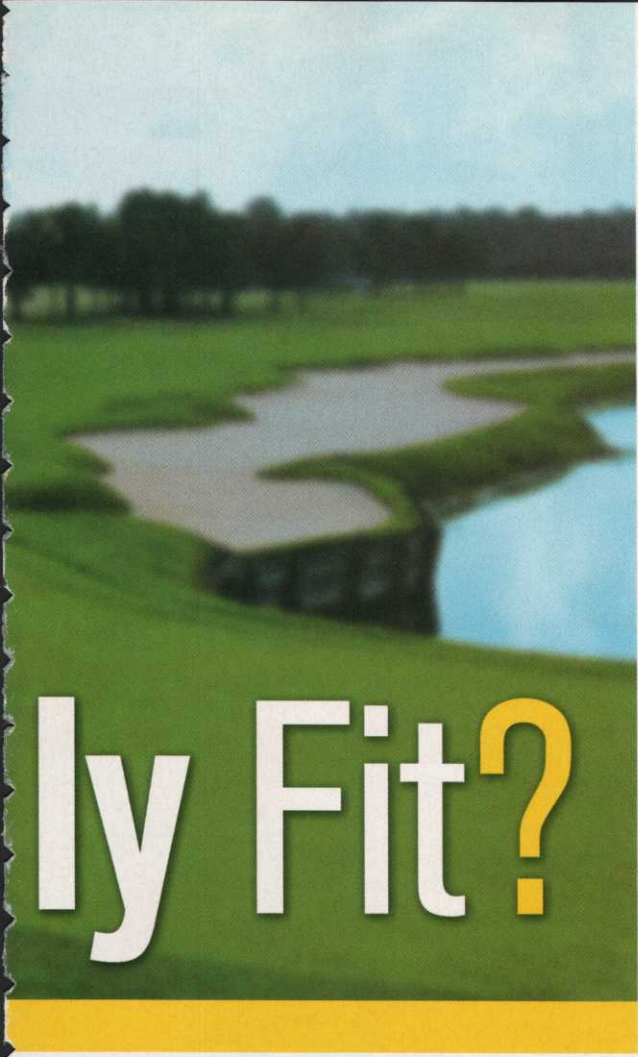

By Larry Aylward

66

You and Your Machines

It helps to consider the following when tackling the "Equipment Maintenance Repairs" line item.

By Ron Furlong

ly Fit?

cover story

BY GOLFDOM STAFF

You need the green stuff (money) to take care of the green stuff (your turf). We'll tell you how some superintendents are doing that in our five-part Budget Guide.

35

About the cover

Golfdom Art director Kristen Morabito designed our cover with photographic help from Punchstock and Mike Klemme.

82

Family Ties

Gourlay family has roots from Scotland to Kansas State.

By Anthony Pioppi

News with a hook

16 He's the Real Deal

18 Here Comes Penoxsulam

▼ Sizzling

If you're planning your 2008 budget, you might be able to use these products. Check them out starting on page 87.

columns

12 Pin High

Getting Held Up Without a Gun

30 Shades of Green

Create Your Own Value Proposition

32 Designs On Golf

Longing for More Short Grass

80 Turf M.D.

The News on Dew Is Good and Bad

120 Out of Bounds

Wallpaper

departments

8 We've Got Mail

14 Big Picture

16 Off the Fringe

28 Hole of the Month

116 Leaders

119 Classifieds

Turfgrass Trends

This month, Golfdom's practical research digest for turf managers discusses removal of overseeded ryegrass in the summer, among other topics. See pages 71-78

Online Exclusive

Read this story only at www.golfdom.com/onlineexclusive:

► Sixteen years in this profession has taught me a lot. My experience has also left me with some things I'd like to see happen.

By Charlie Fultz