

Golfdom

13 PLANT HEALTH: PART 1 HEALTHY PLANTS, HEALTHY MINDS

When plants get stressed, healthier roots keep supers at ease.

BY STEVEN TINGLE

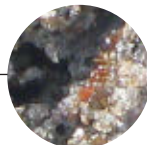

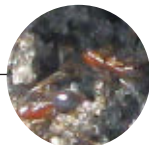

About the cover

Golfdom Art Director Carrie Parkhill Wallace gives us a view of the underground with an image from iStock International Inc.

21 What a Kick!

Las Vegas came up aces for the Golf Industry Show. Here's our rundown of the greatest show on turf.

By The Golfdom Staff

Put Out the Fire!

Be on the lookout for next month's issue, with a special report on fire ant control.

columns

- 9 Reading Greens
A Good Start for Tiger and for Golf
- 10 From the Back Tees
Duffy's Excellent Trip to the Strip
- 12 Turf M.D.
A Concern for Global Golf

departments

- 4 Off the Fringe
Hannah nabs Green Section award; Golembiewski to Bayer; GCSAA fights DOL rule.
- 28 Clark Talks Turf
Clark Throssell, Ph.D., discusses dollar spot control in cool season grass fairways with Rick Latin, Ph.D.
- 36 The Company Line
- 40 The 19th Hole with...
John Ballard, CGCS, Audubon Country Club, Louisville, Ky.

Turfgrass Trends

This month, Golfdom's practical research digest takes a look at controlling bermudagrass in zoysiagrass fairways with research from James T. Brosnan, Ph.D. and Gregory K. Breeden. See pages 31-35.

Online Exclusive

Stop by Golfdom TV (www.golfdom.com) to see the first of our series of interviews with Golfdom Summit superintendents, as well as an interview with Chris Lineberger about plant health.