

Golfdom

SEPTEMBER 2012 • VOLUME 68 • NO. 9

Moisture Meter

16 MANIA

Soil moisture technology is being used from tees to greens at some courses — how about yours?

BY BETH GERACI
SENIOR EDITOR

columns

- 10 Reading Greens
The Clone Saga
- 12 From the Back Tees
Cheers to Rounds for Research
- 14 At the Turn
China: Curiosity and Opportunity
- 32 Turf M.D.
Sand Topdressing and Fairways

departments

- 6 Off the Fringe
Syngenta takes to Pinehurst No. 2; USGA's Zontek passes away; Golfdom accepting Herb Graffis Award nominations.
- 9 Around the Web
- 40 The 19th Hole with...
Damon Di Giorgio, Superintendent, Fieldstone Golf Club, Greenville, Del.

Turfgrass Trends

This month, Golfdom's practical research digest discusses preparing for snow mold applications. See pages 33-38.

Online Exclusive

Golfdom's new Turfgrass Trends monthly e-newsletter is up and running, with original content and a one-question turf quiz. To make sure it goes to your inbox, sign up at www.golfdom.com.

22

Fertilizing by the Light of the Moon

Fertigation is a valuable irrigation tool, but it's not for every course.

By Stacie Zinn Roberts

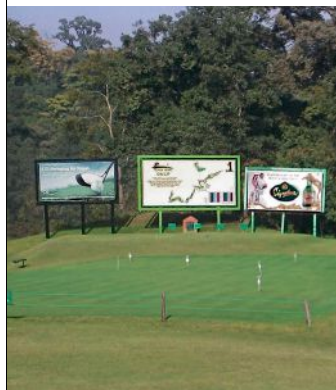

30

Your Ad Here

Could American golf courses take a tip from this Nepalese golf course?

By Curt Harler

26

Near Miss

What are superintendents and manufacturers doing to keep workers safe?

By Steven Tingle

