

Golfdom

The Business Journal of Golf

FEBRUARY, 1942

Golf Continues During War.
Britons, Australians Prove

By EDIE BUTLER
GOLFERS in the United States can be expected to play less as a result of the war, but if the government of a nation is determined to do so, it can be done.

1942 Canadian Open Golf
Meet to Be Held as Usual

QUINTON, Ont., Jan. 31 (AP)—The 1942 Canadian Open golf tournament will be held as usual this year, according to the Canadian Golf Association, which has announced that the meet will be held at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto, Ont., from June 15 to 19.

Cites Golf's
Importance
To Morale

W. G. A. Head Says
Workers Need Sport
For Relaxation

All-out efforts for America will soon be made during 1942.

WILL HOLD COLLEGE MEET

The 1942 college golf season will be held as usual, according to the National College Golf Association, which has announced that the meet will be held from June 15 to 19.

PROS ARRANGE
GOLF SCHEDULE
FOR 3 MONTHS

Los Angeles Cal., Jan. 31 (AP)—The 1942 professional golf schedule for the first three months will be announced by the PGA and the PGA of America, which have announced that the meet will be held from June 15 to 19.

GOLF WILL DO ITS SHARE FOR WAR

Expect No Immediate Ball
Shortage.

HALF AMERICA
TOURNEY TAKES PLACE OF OPENS

Combines National City Events.

CHARLES BARTLE
The 1942 Half America tournament will be held as usual, according to the PGA and the PGA of America, which have announced that the meet will be held from June 15 to 19.

See Golf Meets as Usual
Despite Shortage of Rubber

The 1942 golf season will be held as usual, according to the PGA and the PGA of America, which have announced that the meet will be held from June 15 to 19.

Phila. Golfers
Vote Full '42 Schedule

The Philadelphia Golf Association has voted to hold the 1942 golf season as usual, according to the PGA and the PGA of America, which have announced that the meet will be held from June 15 to 19.

START $5,000 MEET TODAY

The $5,000 golf meet will be held as usual, according to the PGA and the PGA of America, which have announced that the meet will be held from June 15 to 19.

Normandie Club Expands
Activity to Aid War Effort

Benefit Exhibitions for Red Cross
Scheduled, Defense Bonds in Budget