the grip, clear the moisture from the hands and give greater traction action. This new design, as well as a new rubber compound which will not harden, reportedly give greater shock absorption.

The new design reduces weight of the grip and lowers the balance point of the club. The new Golf Pride grip, size for size, is claimed to be the lightest grip made.

William Junker, sales mgr. of Fawick Flexi-Grip Co. reports enthusiasm from pros who have been using the first grips produced and says the "Rib-Lock" model will be introduced to the trade Sept. 1.

RELL SUGGS ON PRO BEAT FOR MacGREGOR

Rell Suggs, brother of Louise Suggs, has been appointed as a sales representative for the MacGregor Golf Co., advises R. D. Rickey, Pro Sales Mgr. of MacGregor. He will cover the professional trade in Okla., Ark., La. and Miss. He starts his new duties on September 2 with the presentation of the 1953 line of MacGregor golf equipment.

Rell Suggs comes from a sports-minded family. His father, one-time New York Yankee, is the pro at Lythia Spring, Georgia. His sister, Louise, one of the greatest women golfers is one the MacGregor Advisory Staff.

Rell's background qualifies him for his new sales work. He attended Georgia Tech and later transferred to Auburn, where he was a member of the varsity golf team. He served in the Navy. For the last 3 years he has been working at the MacGregor plant in Cincinnati, learning clubmaking and training for his sales job. While in Cincinnati he was a member of MacGregor's championship Industrial golf team.

NEW, LIGHTWEIGHT FOLDING CART

Products of Georgia, Inc., Louisville, Ga., has developed a simple, sturdily-built, lightweight (11 1/4 lbs.) folding bag cart made of long grained oak that will withstand weather and rough usage. The cart is mounted on 8 in. rubber tired steel disc wheels. It is 21 in. wide and made to accommodate any golf bag. There are no gadgets, straps or other mechanism to adjust. Bag hangs by handle when placed on cart and is held in place by a peg which keeps bag in proper position.

The cart designed, by an experienced folding furniture designer, has undergone several changes during a year of tests supt. at Plum Hollow GC (Detroit dist.) yielded $5000 for a grand guy who's seriously ill . . . Locke wanted $6000 from George S. May for appearance at Tam O'Shanter All-American and World Championships . . . George didn't give down . . . Jimmy Nicholls back on exhibition schedule for Spalding after lay-off and hospital check-up . . . Check-up showed the one-armed star in sound shape but worn down temporarily from steady routine of playing, clinics and auto travel.

SWINGING AROUND GOLF

Clyde Usina, Sr., 57, for 20 years pro-mgr., West Palm Beach (Fla.) CC, died July 20 at Palm Beach . . . Two years ago he suffered a stroke . . . His son, Clyde, Jr., who had been his asst., succeeded him at West Palm Beach CC . . . Clyde, Sr., meant southern hospitality to many winter visitors to Florida and was treasured as a friend and a splendid exponent of the finest spirit of golf.

National Left-handed Golfers' Assn. 13th annual championship at Fred Waring's Shawnee CC, Aug. 4-7, breaks last year's entry record of 151 . . . Waring was limping around at Edgewater GC (Chicago dist.) during Western Seniors . . . He'd been in automobile crash on his way to airport for Chicago trip and narrowly missed getting the full Hogan treatment . . . Fred will be host to Western Seniors' tournament in 1953 at his place at Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa. . . That's the historic spot the Worthingtons formerly owned and where the great and merry Shawnee Opens were held.

Frank Justin, 59-year-old winner of Western Seniors' title with 78-72—150, got started in golf competition around Chicago against such educational opposition as Chick Evans and the Dawson boys . . . Justin, a stalwart stylish stout edged out by 2 strokes Tom "Meat-Cutter" Robbins, US Seniors' champion of 1951 and 1952; Allen R. Rankin, 3-time winner of Kenilworth Lodge national seniors' match play championship; and Allan M. Loeb, who was one of Chicago golf's junior stars about the time Old Tom Morris started growing whiskers (or a few years later).

Edgewater course in excellent condition for Western Seniors, due to Supt. Gerald Dearie's genius and good luck in sizzling, sticky weather . . . Rough was tight . . . It must be as Edgewater is compactly laid out on 90 acres with parallel fairways that need rough as separation.

Play of the old guys was faster than play in the National Open and National Amateur . . . About 20 minutes per round faster . . . Including pauses to wipe sweat and steam off their eye-glasses . . . Which reminds us that the most fluent, eloquent and vigorous profanity we ever heard was the late Gil Nicholls' comment on having to wear glasses while playing golf on a sweltering day . . . Grand tribute by Whitey Martin of Associated Press in his "Sports Trail" column to Al Ciuci, as representative of the home club pros to whom much of the credit for American golf's growth is due . . . Al has been pro at Fresh Meadow CC (NY Met dist.) for 27 years, having succeeded Gene Sarazen.
