Swinging around Golf

NEWS OF THE GOLF WORLD IN BRIEF

Jim Brown resigns from pro job at Hyperion Field Club, Des Moines, Ia. . . . Will play tournament circuit . . . Henri Tubach from Red Hill CC, Up-land, Calif., to be sec. and gen. mgr., Irvine Coast CC, Newport Beach, Calif. . . . Tubach is a veteran star at club manage-ment . . . He started in Chicago

dist. in club accounting 33 years ago . . . Skip Alexander, pro at Lakewood CC, St. Petersburg, Fla., awarded $75,000 by Federal court for injuries received in Civil Air Patrol plane crash five years ago . . . Skip had sued for $200,000 . . . Government defense was that he was a hitch-hiker . . . Pros who are in habit of taking non-scheduled plane flights should have their insurance men examine their policies . . . Most insurance policies cover only scheduled plane flights.

Party to Bob Jones preceding National Amateur at Richmond and celebrating Bob's 25th anniversary of the Grand Slam was merry and inspiring affair . . . Bob looks better now than he has for a couple of years past . . . Getting around in a golf car has been marvelous for Bob and for the fellows who get to see him . . . In a way the Amateur this year was like the Jones days with all the preliminary talk favoring Harvie Ward and Harvie's practice rounds justifying it . . . Plenty of hot talent could have derailed Harvie and came a photofinish away from doing it . . . Hillman Robbins, jr. and Joe Campbell looked to most of the observing pros viewing the Amateur as members of the class (outside of Ward) most likely to succeed.

Harry Pezzullo re-elected pres., Illinois PGA . . . Sam Eig, Silver Spring, Md., to build 18 hole course alongside big de luxe motel he is to build . . . Johnny Bulla resigns as pro at Westmoreland CC, Pittsburgh, Pa., to go into business in Phoenix, Ariz. . . . Lake Success, N. Y. residents want to retain as public course what's left of Deepdale GC after expressway is built through . . . Option on old Deepdale now held by builder who plans subdividing.

Harry Obitz, pro at Shawnee CC, Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., lost $30,000 shop stock by flood and his home also was washed away . . . Obitz had one of the nation's finest, busiest pro shops . . . Waite Memorial tourney, put on by Fred Waring shortly after flood abated, was played on part of Shawnee course and this remainder of the course anchored much flood debris . . . Not a complaint made by a contestant . . . Everyone thought of how lucky he was, considering loss of life and property in the flood . . . Worthington Mower Co. in Stroudsburg, Pa., a few miles from Shawnee, did a miraculous job in reconditioning machinery, getting new equipment and having production line rolling quickly after the flood receded.

Robert Renner, sports writer of Ft. Wayne (Ind.) New-Sentinel, named as Tournament Bureau mgr., Ladies PGA . . . Renner, an energetic, able and resourceful young man, started a study of the LPGA promotion needs when the girls were playing their tournament in Ft. Wayne and submitted a promotion program that got him the job . . . Blaine Eynon, active in Detroit district golf and in promotion of the LPGA event in that territory, aided the ladies valuably in sifting the candidates.

Aaron Blaskowsky now pro at Leavenworth (Wash.) GC . . . Mrs. Blaskowsky managing the clubhouse . . . Considering building an 18-hole course on Willow Oaks Corp. site near Richmond, Va. . . . C. Porter Vaughan heads Willow Oaks Corp. . . . Plans being completed for new course and clubhouse of Colorado Springs (Colo.) CC . . . Tomah, Wis., group headed by Lowell Schettler and Charles Nuzum planning 9-hole course . . . Robert Kesler
