Central Plains Meeting

Theme of the Central Plains Turfgrass field day held June 2 at Kansas State College, Manhattan, was "Better Athletic Turf." Beryl Taylor, supt. at Iowa State College, an authority on cool season grasses, discussed the effect of traffic on bluegrass while Bob Lester, supt. of Wichita municipal courses, gave a talk on warm season grasses in the transition zone. Dr. Campbell of the KSU staff demonstrated controls that are being used on the University's crabgrass plots. Ray A. Keen, William F. Pickett, Roy Rasmussen and Jim Tobias made up the committee in charge of the June 2 field day.

During the meeting it was announced that the fall field days will be held Oct. 15-17 at Manhattan.

WMGA Tournament Card

Women's Metropolitan Golf Assn. recently released its 1958 tournament schedule. The tourney season officially got underway on Apr. 29 with the first of five interclub team matches. Included in the book are revised handicap requirements for new members and a new course rating system.

Mid Atlantic Association Honors Tuckerman, McLeod

101 years of championship golf were honored when the Middle Atlantic Golf Assn. paid tribute recently to Walter R. Tuckerman and Freddie McLeod at the association's 56th annual meeting at Columbia CC, Chevy Chase, Md.

Tuckerman, a founder of Burning Tree Club and a Washington area resident, won the MAGA championship in 1907, when he was one of the country's top amateur golfers. In 1910 he was runner-up to Walter J. Travis in the North-South Amateur.

McLeod, pro at Columbia since 1912, won the U. S. Open in 1908 and tied Walter Hagen for second in 1921. In 1919 he lost in the PGA final to Jim Barnes who won the 1921 Open.

New president of the MAGA is Herbert A. Wagner, Jr., of Baltimore. He succeeds Lt. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, former commander of the Second Army and the assn's senior champion.

Musser Survey Shows Need of Turf Management Training

A survey recently completed by Prof. H. B. Musser of Pennsylvania State University shows that only nine U. S. colleges or universities offer a 4-year study course in which students can major in turf management. During the last 10 years these institutions have graduated an average of only one student a year. Altogether, 8,500 agricultural graduates leave the campuses of our land grant colleges each year. The upshot of Musser's findings is that if country clubs are going to have a steady flow of competent supts. over the years they will have to find some method of training young men for these jobs.

International to Mexico City

Sixth annual International Golf Championship and Canada Cup Matches will be held concurrently in Mexico City in November. Dates of the competitions and name of the course will be announced later. Torakichi Nakamura and Koichi Ono, representing Japan, will be defending the titles they won last year against teams from 30 nations.

Wanda Sanches on Wilson Staff

Wanda Sanches, who plays the LPGA circuit, now is a member of the Wilson Sporting Goods Co.'s women's advisory golf staff. A onetime softball star, Wanda took up golf in 1949, won the Baton Rouge, La., City title that year and then gave up the game for three years to work as an accountant. Upon resuming golf in 1953 she won several amateur championships but it wasn't until 1956, when she either won or was a contender for several important amateur titles, that she became well known. She turned pro in May, 1957. She joins Patty Berg, Betsy Rawls, Mickey Wright and Betty Hicks on the Wilson staff.

The company also has a complete setup for repairing or rebuilding golf cars.

Mahan Gets Plymouth Trophies

Tom Mahan, pro at United Shoe CC, Beverly, Mass., and pres. of New England PGA has won two Plymouth "Worth-its-Weight-in-Gold" trophies. He scored an ace at Dunedin's 6th in the National Seniors and also aced the same numbered hole at his own club last fall. Plymouth Golf Ball Co., Plymouth Meeting, Pa., awards the trophies to pros scoring a hole-in-1 with the PGA ball. It is also possible through this competition for a pro to win $56.70, equivalent to the ball's weight in gold.

Kromad Controls 5 Diseases

Kromad, made by Mallinckrodt Chemical Works, Mallinckrodt st., St. Louis, is said to control five major turf diseases: brown patch, dollarspot, red thread, copper spot and leaf blights such as Helminthosporium and Curvularia. Now in its second year on the market, the product has had all-season application at hundreds of courses throughout U.S.

Tru-Shot Practice Balls

Tru-Shot practice balls, made by Fairway Products Co., Wilton, Conn., are manufactured of cork, specially processed to give realistic impact and flight. They are recommended for limited hitting areas and are said, by the manufacturer, to be the most nearly perfect practice ball.

Spalding Ace Awards

Spalding is offering not only a certificate for a Hole-In-One award but, for the first time, a miniature version of it in the form of a wallet card. Men or women who shoot a hole-in-one with either a Spalding ball or club will thus be able to prove their point at all times. In addition, "Privileges Of Memberships" are printed for the fortunate few on the reverse side of the card. The Spalding certificates bear Bob Jones' signature as well as a cartoon by Willard Mullin.

As another highlight in the offering Spalding will award special trophies to the longest attested holes-in-one made by a man or woman respectively.

Dunlop Pamphlet Lists Coronary Club Requisites

Dunlop Tire & Rubber Co., Sporting Goods Div., New York 36, has distributed a four-page cartoon pamphlet listing requirements for membership in the Coronary Club. To become a Class A member, the pamphlet suggests that a person go to the office on weekends and holidays, always plan a conference for the meal hour, take the brief case home evenings, never delegate responsibility to others, etc., etc.

Sit-N-Rest Makes Woodsnests in Wide Variety of Colors

Woodsnests, made by Sit-N-Rest Golf Bag Co., 2400-C W.

Clybourn st., Milwaukee 3, are now available in a larger variety of color combinations. Vinyl binding and nylon are used throughout. The covers are constructed of vinyl leatherette which is fadeproof and keeps its new appearance indefinitely, according to the manufacturer. When clubs are in the Woodsnest pockets, their heads are fully protected against forceful dropping of clubs into the bag.

Fawick Cover Keeper Holds Club Covers in Place

Fawick Flexi-Grip Co., Akron, O., has developed a new Golf Pride cover keeper that is said to eliminate tangling and knotting of the cords on which clubhead covers are strung. The cover keepers are tough, stretchable Neoprene rubber and fabric cords, 12-ins. long, that have a springlike tendency to remain straightened out. A ball at each end slips through the eye-ripping by which the cover is suspended but a tapered shoulder next to the ball-end is too large to pass through the eye. Ball separators divide the cord in three zones for spacing the covers.

Frederick E. Hawkins has been named asst. development mgr. by Keasbey & Mattison Co., Ambler, Pa. He is connected with the research and development div.

Greens Air Special

The self-propelled "Greens Air Special," made by Greens Aerification Co., Hopkins, Minn., precisely cuts and ejects cores from perforations 3-ins. deep and ½-in. in dia., producing 30,000 holes to every 1,000 sq. ft. of area. The machine is propelled by a Kohler K 90 engine.

Hogan Equipment Has Worldwide Appeal

Worldwide sales of Ben Hogan equipment are a big success, according to officials of Slazengers, Ltd., London, Eng. Humphrey McMaster, Slazenger vice-chairman, and Jimmy Ross, sales and production mgr., met recently with Hogan in Ft. Worth to review the sales and manufacturing picture. Slazenger plants in England, Australia, New Zealand, S. Africa and Canada are turning out equipment to Hogan company specifications. The tieup between the British and American firms was made a year ago. Hogan's domestic sales are running about 50 per cent ahead of last year.

MacGregor's Sweep-Flare Bag

Macgregor has introduced what's said to be a new concept of golf bag styling in its 1958 line. Called "Sweep Flare," there are 12 different price ranges of bags in this design. Shown right is the G621 model in gold-flecked tan "Tuff-Hide" embossed with natural steerhide leather trim. The bag also is available in black, white or blue with various trims.

Larchmont Tells Features of Agrilite Pipe

Agrilite, high pressure plastic pipe, distributed by Larchmont Engineering, Lexington, Mass., is said to be answer to turfmen who want pipe that can be either buried or exposed to the sun or both and still stand up. Some of the qualities of Agrilite are: It will stand great shock; is non-corrosive; is lightweight but practically indestructible and is made to withstand high pressures. Complete data covering the pipe and information about fittings that can be used with it are available from Larchmont Engineering.

Spalding Robbed of $300,000 in Golf Goods at Chicago

Spalding's Chicago dist. warehouse, 4850 N. Harlem, Harwood Heights, Ill., during the Memorial Day holiday was robbed of approximately $300,000 in golf goods. Thieves took over $200,000 worth of Dots and Double Dots, Krof-lites and other balls and an estimated $70,000 worth of clubs, many pro-only. Al. R. Hyatt, Spalding's Chicago dist. mgr., said exact figures wouldn't be known until an inventory was completed.

Recently the Golfcraft warehouse, 7059 W. Addison, Chicago, was robbed of about $20,000 in clubs and balls, including every Glassshaft club in Chicago's stock.

This spring there has been a wave of pro shop robberies in the Chicago district. Pros should be on the watch for sales of cut-price golf goods as possibly connected with the Chicago robberies.

Takes 'Ow' Out of Adhesive Removal

A newly developed aerosol spray makes it easier to rip off taped bandages. Known as "Ace" Adherent (Aerosol), it is manufactured by Becton, Dickinson & Co., Rutherford, N. J., while the Freon propellant in the package is manufactured by Du Pont. "Ace" is a pre-tape dressing that make adhesive stick better, prevents slippage and reduces irritation.
