*Increase your course revenue . . .
light for night play!*

WIDE-LITES add "Extra Holes" to your course at Low Cost!

Night lighting of golf courses now is practical, thanks to the broad light pattern of Wide-Lites and their lower installation cost. And think what it means — players who can't get away from work until late afternoon can become active golfers. And even if only the back nine is lighted, players can tee off in late afternoon and be sure of getting in a complete round! Wide-Lite golf course lighting lets you increase course revenue without adding acreage to your course!

One Wide-Lite with color-corrected mercury vapor lamp does the work of two or more incandescent floodlights—cutting down the number of poles, cross-arms and fixtures (cuts costs, too!). And operating on 460 volts, Wide-Lights require 50% less transformer capacity, with smaller conductor wires. This permits low-cost underground wiring to keep your course beautiful! And lamps last seven times as long as incandescents.

SWEET SHOT GIVES YOU THE LONG BALL, CONSISTENTLY!

Some golfers get greatest distance with a high compression ball—others with a lower compression golf ball. That's why Worthington makes Sweet Shots in different compressions—so you can recommend the one that best matches each golfer's swing. "Big hitters" need a harder ball, like the Sweet Shot 100; smooth swingers do best with a lower compression ball, like the 90.

And once you have helped a golfer select the Sweet Shot for him, you can be sure that he'll get his longest drives consistently. Precision dyna-tension winding, plus individual compression-testing, assures you that every Sweet Shot you sell is the same compression as the last.

Recommend the long ball for 1960—the Sweet Shot. Use it yourself, and hit for distance, consistently!

Side-by-side tests proved Agrico's superiority to Edward A. Chichunies, Supt., South Shore Golf Course, Hamburg, N. Y.

"I have used Agrico and Agrinite for several years, and have always been rewarded with beautiful dense turf. From time to time I have tried other fertilizers but never had as good results. For my money, you can't beat Agrinite as a summer turf food for greens.

"In the last few years I have fed my greens through the proportioner and I have been very well satisfied. The course including the fairways looked their best this year!"

Best by actual comparative tests—that's the experience of Mr. Chichunies and leading Superintendents everywhere with Agrico and Agrinite!

the biggest portion of their dues dollar on these expenses, the cost per hole was highest in the large clubs. The gross maintenance cost of the large clubs was $3,226 per hole, a rise of $404 or 14 per cent over 1958; the maintenance cost of the medium-sized clubs was $2,751 per hole, an increase of $161 or 6 per cent; and that of the small clubs was $1,861, up $114 or 7 per cent.

Greens and grounds maintenance payroll, which constitutes approximately 70 per cent of the gross maintenance costs, rose 5 per cent over 1958 in both the small and the medium-sized clubs and 9 per cent in the large clubs. It should be pointed out, however, that these golf and grounds costs do not include any fixed asset costs (improvements, additions, replacements or depreciation) nor any fixed charges, such as real estate taxes, property insurance or interest on borrowed capital. The net cost of golf and grounds per hole, after the addition of golf shop, caddy and tournament expenses and the deduction of greens fees and other golf income, rose $68 over 1958 to $1,714 in the small clubs, $100 to $2,298 in the medium-sized clubs and $342 to $3,111 in the large clubs. In 1959 the net cost of golf and grounds was 25 per cent of dues in the large clubs and 31.7 per cent in the medium-sized clubs, compared with 24.2 and 31.5, respectively, in the preceding year. But in the small clubs the increase in total dues income effected a small decrease from 40.9 in 1958 to 40.4 per cent in 1959.

out, "the golfers who walked lost an average of four to five pounds. Their blood pressure rose from 8 to as much as 20 points. Blood pressure of those who rode went down slightly. They suffered no appreciable weight loss.

"With regard to pulse, that of the riders either decreased or remained the same while the number of heart beats of those who walked jumped an average of 16 per minute," the doctor said.

"From my observations of the 12 golfers, it appears that playing the course via car rather than walking is indeed more beneficial," Menachof said. This statement refers to all golfers whether they go out three days a week or once a year, according to the doctor.
