The Finest...BUY BAG RACK

It's the favorite of hundreds of the finest clubs throughout the nation. The free standing BAG RACK installation shown here for example, is in the PGA National clubhouse at Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

They like BAG RACK because it provides safe, convenient, neat storage. They like the way BAG RACK keeps members' bags visible, vertical and ventilated. They like BAG RACK'S versatility. It's completely adjustable in height and width for larger or smaller bags. They like BAG RACK because they can choose from overhead support, free standing or single entry installations. You'll like it, too.

Send us your letterhead. We'll see that you get detailed information and prices without delay.

for a good grip — a better game

Claro Non-Slip is a smooth grip cream. It gives you a truer, more confident feel of the club. It assures a firmer and more positive grip. Unaffected by perspiration, one application lasts a full round. Just 50 cents at pro shops.

Here's another invisible glove—the Claro Rosin Bag. Specially compounded to be tacky but not sticky. Offers same advantages as Claro Non-Slip—only 50 cents.

great-grandfather George rented part of his farm in 1898 to become the Sharon GC . . . After old George died, his son Tom sold the course to the club and took over as superintendent, a job he held for more than 35 years . . . He was a charter member of the New England GCSA . . . Tom had five children who became active as pro and amateur golfers; George, Helen, John, Tom and Nora . . . John, after Boston College, took course management school at U. of Massachusetts . . . Thomas J., the third son, is pro at Foxborough . . . John, the second son, won numerous amateur championships then became assistant to his dad before going into WW II as an infantryman . . . Helen was in golf for family fun and won a club Class B championship so she could eat at the O'Leary's first table . . . Nora won nine championships then majored in a business course.

Another family story that scored with us was Walt Gamage's job in Redwood City (Calif.) on Robert Trent Jones, Sr. and Jr. . . Jones, Jr. is in charge of the West Coast office (Palo Alto, Calif.) for his father's company and already has created courses that some who believe themselves authorities in golf architecture (and who doesn't?) rate as advances on his dad's classic treatment . . . Gamage refers to Jones, Sr. as "The Frank Lloyd Wright of the Fairways." . . . There's a second Jones son prepping for a golf architectural career . . . Sons of a number of other top golf architects have been doing some great design and building jobs . . . Among them are Bill Bell, Press Maxwell, and Dave Gordon . . . Every day it seems that more golfers are becoming aware of the enduring value and economy of first class golf architecture.

Superintendent Ed Currin at Tuscon National course and Dr. William McConnell, biologist of University of Arizona, have been experimenting with Chinese grass carp and African tilapia, fish for weed control, in lake on 18th fairway . . . Lake was choked with weeds last June and the fish had cleaned it by mid-August . . . Tilapia did not survive the winter.

Al Huske in his 25th year as pro at Glen Oak CC, Glen Ellyn, Ill. . . His assistants are Bill Giese and a new one, Terry Cole . . . Lake Shore CC, Glencoe, Ill., gave a party to its pro Angel De la Torre, in celebrating his 30th year of service at the club.

Sarasota (Fla.) City officials considering adding fourth nine to the Bobby Jones course . . . They've budgeted $400,000 for land, new clubhouse, pro shop and equipment building . . . A committee of prominent golfers is to advise and promote the project . . . Use of two-man golf cars is being discontinued at the Bobby Jones course . . . Single cars are the replacements . . . There are about 125 privately owned cars that will be allowed to remain in use at the course.

Frederick L. Hovde, president, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., has been appointed to the USGA Green Committee . . . Hovde has been substantially helpful in encouraging the turf research directed by Dr. Bill Daniel at Purdue and of the Midwest Turf Foundation . . . Hovde was a football teammate of the famed and rugged Bronko Nagurski at Minnesota and in those autumn days very much interested in softer turf.

There'll be about 10 million cubic yards of earth handled in building the Beverly Hills (Calif.) CC which Dean Martin, Phil Harris and others are having Robert Trent Jones create . . . Golf course superintendents in the New York Metropolitan area are asking for the GCSA turf conference and equipment and supplies show for 1970 . . . GCSA previous annual session at New York was in 1947.

Jimmy Crossan now pro at the Barham Range, a feature of the large "mobile estates" project at San Marcos, Calif. . . . Dick Mulvaine lauded by Maricopa County, Ariz., Supervisors for his job as pro at the county's Sierra Estrella course southwest of Goodyear . . . Second nine was opened in February . . . Bud Williamson, Jr., now pro at Lochland CC, Hasting, Neb. . . Young Bud had been assistant to Gary Rehfeld at Knollwood Club, Chicago district, and is succeeded there by Don Kennedy.

Ernie Dunlevie of Bermuda Dunes CC, named vice-president and tournament chairman, Ninth annual Bob Hope Desert Classic . . . Dunlevie formerly was Bermuda Dunes president and secretary of the Hope Classic . . . Ray Lowell, president Eldorado CC, succeeds Dunlevie as Classic secretary . . . General William Yancey is executive director of the Classic which has raised more than $800,000 for the Eisenhower Medical Center and other Desert welfare and charity operations . . . Somebody had the bad judgment to start working on a Frank Sinatra pro-am in the Palm Springs-Desert area to be played a couple of weeks prior to the Hope event, figuring it would give a class hue to the Sinatra "image" . . . The PGA knocked that notion out of the calendar . . . After all Bob has done for golf, pro and amateur, a tourney named to show gratitude for his performance of years has got to be protected . . . Same thing goes for the Crosby tournament . . .
