

Rhode Island Golf Course Superintendents Association recently held an Old Timers' dinner at which a dozen members were given plaques as "founding members" although the records of the organization, established in 1930, long since have vanished . . . Like the plans of drainage and water lines of golf courses installed about that time . . . Orville Clapper, West Newton, Mass. equipment and supply dealer, and Dr. Jesse De France, now of Scott Seed, who also helped the fellows get their outfit going, were given Founding Father plaques . . . Orville was MC for the dinner and he and his secretary did a lot of work collecting the work biographies of the Rhode Island fellows who produced some of the finest golf turf on that part of New England's stern and rock-bound coast.

Thinking about great work Jesse De France did in bringing the turf scientists and the greenskeepers together we are reminded that John Monteith, Burt Musser, Lawrence Dickison, Glenn Burton and the late O. J. Noer as scientists have received the Green Section award and the late Joe Valentine and Elmer Michaels got it as working course managers (who certainly deserved the recognition.)

Bill Jaeger, general chairman, 1968 USGA National Amateur championship at Scioto CC, Columbus, O., appoints Nicholas Popa tournament manager . . . Popa, an advertising man who came into golf as a caddie and who wrote a useful book on caddie training, is a side-line career man in tournament management. . . . He managed the 1964 PGA championship at Columbus CC . . . Don Boyd, the Columbus CC manager, set up for the PGA affair the best working manual for the house end of a big championship that ever was compiled, according to several experienced managers.

Miami Herald supplement (Golfing in South Florida), published with a Monday paper before the Doral tournament, was the fattest in advertising of all newspaper golf supplements to date . . . Jimmy Burns, Ray Crawford, Ken Small, Gene Plowden, Dick Meyer and Ted Findlay of the Herald, with Bob Toski and Paul Hahn gave the feature a lot of hot copy, including a fine selection of 18 "Challenging" holes of south Florida and a directory of the area's clubs and pros . . . High tribute is paid to south Florida golf course superintendents' work . . . Picture of June Taylor dancers of the Jackie Gleason show taking their golf lessons makes many guys want to trade jobs with Hahn, the trick shot star, and Gleason as the Taylor girls' tutors . . . Hahn takes Gleason usually at CC of Miami and how sweet it is for Paul to grab those $5 Nassaus from Gleason who is nearly a par golfer.

Bert Purvis, the vigorous salesman who's been plugging pro golf for years in upper state New York tells us that Bob Haggerty, Jr., son of a guy we all knew and loved, is pro at Schenectady (N.Y.) munny course . . . Bill Lawlor is pro at Teugega CC, Rome, N.Y., Jim Peters is at the new Casenovia (N.Y.) CC, Dick Osborne is at Ballston Spa (N.Y.) CC, Jim Eldredge is at the Park CC, Williamsville, N.Y. . . . Bert says Larry Bartosek, pro at Skaneateles CC in Syracuse did record business in his winter golf school.

Most complete story on building of a golf course we've seen in a newspaper was written in San Diego News-Chietain by Hal Davee interviewing Ken Moore, superintendent Rancho Bernardo . . . Two pages of type and illustrations on the 18-hole RB addition designed by Theodore G. Robinson . . . Philadelphia Inquirer's 1967 Golf Guide, prepared by Fred Byrod, sports editor and veteran golf writer, a most useful, interesting work with map of all courses in the Delaware Valley, lots of instruction, list of club champions and low handicap players, course features and 1967 equipment.

Mrs. Charles Evans, Chick's beloved wife, died in Chicago, Feb. 12, after three years of painful invalidism, valiantly suffered . . . She was 72 . . . Her maiden name was Underwood . . . Chick always left tournaments to be home with her nights during her illness . . . Last summer, he flew to Philadelphia for a ceremony marking the 50th anniversary of the amateur victory of his Open-Amateur championship triumphs, and returned to Chicago and his wife's bedside after a few hours at Merion.

Winter's heavy snows are expected to produce considerable reconstruction of courses after spring flood damage, forecast superintendents at GCSA annual meeting . . . Gerald Dearie, superintendent, Medinah CC (Western Open), Henson Maples, superintendent, Finehurst CC (Western Amateur) and Charles Lawson, superintendent, Indiana University GC (Western Junior) commended by Adelor J. Petit, jr., Western Open president, for superb condition of courses during 1966 Western championships . . . Those championships were held at times when courses without expert, vigilant watching (and a little bit of luck) could have gone bad . . . The PGA championship usually is the toughest one for the superintendent, as it customarily is played in July when weather, bug and disease conditions are against golf grass . . . I'll say the superintendents' public education program has made a immense advance when ten per cent of the contestants in the PGA championship know the name of the superintendent at the host course . . . Not often do contestants in sectional PGA events know who is superintendent of the course they're enjoying . . . That's a blind spot in the educational publicity of the PGA and GCSA sections that could be easily corrected.

erations and promotion for a top Hawaiian golf resort and as an architect . . . Lanphear says Hines has a fine feeling for balancing factors testing the playing stars and providing entertaining tests for golfers who pay to play . . . George adds that Jimmy has a knack of designing for good maintenance at moderate price.

Lanphear tells of using a tree-moving outfit made in Iowa and sold by West Point in moving 200 trees on the Friendly Hills job . . . Some trees were 100 ft. high and 18 ft. through the butt . . . He says work would have been too costly if given to a contractor . . . Now the trees look like they've been in place for many years.

Surprising how few clubs have practice and lesson tees shaded for comfort and protection of members and pros . . . No wonder so many pros have skin cancers and have their teaching effectiveness reduced summer afternoons . . . Lightning risk is serious at some shady spots where pros teach . . . Jack Hawkins, Jr., a fine youngster who was assistant to Cliff Calderwood, pro at Riverdale CC, Little Rock, Ark., was killed by lightning last year, teaching at Augusta, Ark., on his day off . . . His woman pupil was hospitalized and recovered.

Revision of USGA Handicap system requires accurate measurement of courses . . . Probably the majority of U.S. courses haven't correct distances on the cards . . . The new USGA system bases handicaps on 10 of the last 20 scores and 85% of average of best 10 differentials be-

Paul Erath, president, PGA Seniors is being kept busy in course design and construction . . . Erath's completed the Pleasant View CC 18 for C. I. Taylor at Norvelt, Pa., which will open soon . . . It has six water holes, each of which appears on the scorecard with the name of a popular golf ball . . . Johnny Farrell recovering well after surgery for ulcers at a Delray Beach, Fla., where he was taken from his winter home and job at CC of Florida . . . Johnny, his wife Kay, and their sons Johnny, Jr., Billy and Jimmy received the Metropolitan Golf Writers' Association William D. Chapin memorial award as Golf's No. 1 Family in 1966 . . . Joe Dey got the N.Y. Writers' Gold Key award in recognition of what he's done for golf.

Larry Crummett from Coon Creek CC, San Antonio, Tex., to Oaks CC, Tulsa, pro job succeeding Marion Askew who retired . . . Robert Muir Graves designing Berryessa GC, San Jose, Calif., as a feature of an industrial area development . . . Tom Scott, editor, Golf Illustrated, London, commenting on the retirement of Percy Allis, noted pro who's quitting at age 70 to live like a member, said of Percy and other stars in the '20s: "Those were the days when the spectators could get up close to the gladiators. It did not strike me then, but how wonderfully calm those players of 30 odd years ago were. I certainly cannot remember the looks and petulant actions which one see occasionally today." •
