THE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

It is a pleasure to be able to contribute a small space toward the inauguration of the new W.G.C.S.A news letter. The presidents message hopefully will be able to keep you informed on news from this office that will be of interest to all.

The success of this news letter will require support of all members. The more information we get from you the easier the news letter will roll on. We have a fine experienced editor in Mr. Dan Quast, who is willing to take charge and keep the best news letter in the Mid-West on the move.

The news-letter in return will benefit each and every one of us. The more information we have, the better the communications will be. Communication has got to be a key word to success. We will try to improve on this thru this news letter. Hopefully it will have a positive bearing on the association and all it's members.

The W.G.C.S.A. Executive Board had a meeting in Madison, Wisc. on Dec. 17. There were many items discussed. We are going to try and cut down on the elaborate lunches put out at the meetings before playing golf. It was felt that a lot of clubs were going overboard on the menu when they could hold it to the soup and sandwich routine.

There will be a new roster booklet out with telephone numbers, by-laws and code of ethics installed. Our by-laws will be brought up to date and all the amendments added. As soon as all the information is gathered and put together, this will be printed up.

We have communications going between the Mid-west Association and W.G.C.S.A. for a joint meeting. This meeting was well accepted by our executive board providing it be held the latter part of September.

See you at the April meeting.

Al Vrana, President
