

iously made the association year go. It was again a pleasure to work with the board this year.

My committee chairman, a great thanks for your effort to do the job you accepted when asked to serve. One thing we must remember is that our own job has the number one priority. That job we are obligated to, to serve to the best of our ability. Thanks, all of you, for a fine year.

Be sure to sharpen your golf game up for the upcoming annual golf tournament. This meeting we should all try to make, for it is also our election meeting. Your vote is so important to this association. Use your rights as a voter, it's your responsibility.

Al Vrana,
President
