

The Grass Roots

March 1979

Volume 5 - Number 10

AN OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE WISCONSIN GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENT ASSOCIATION

President's Message

After spending the last few months planning for 1979, sharpening mowers, making equipment repairs and plowing snow it is a pleasure to have spring right around the corner.

It was good to see so many Wisconsin Superintendents in Atlanta. The 50th G.C.S.A.A. Conference was very well attended and offered excellent seminars and educational sessions. The merchandise display was the largest ever with 223 exhibitors.

It was a good opportunity to talk to the manufacturers representatives about any problems you may have with their equipment. They are always open to suggestions from the superintendent.

I would like to commend Wayne Otto for his leadership the last two years. Wayne did an excellent job, sometimes under very adverse conditions.

I hope we can start off the 1979 season with a good attendance at our first meeting at the West Bend Country Club. Skip Willms is always a good host.

WOODY VOIGT

NEW IRRIGATION COMPANY FORMED

Mr. Allan Schildknecht has informed the Editor's office of the following:

IRRIGATION INC., a newly formed subsidiary of Kujawa Enterprises, Inc. (K.E.I.) has been appointed the Master Rain Bird Sprinkler Distributor for Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.
