

WGCSA DINNER DANCE IS A RESOUNDING SUCCESS

By Rod Johnson

WEEKEND INGREDIENTS

A great location, Devils Head Lodge

Some organized activities

Free time to enjoy in one's own way

Add: 32 couples fresh off a long golf season and full of the spirit of enjoyment and ready for a great weekend retreat.

And a truly great weekend it was, just ask anyone who was there! Our soon to be famous WGCSA weekend is now famous.

It is truly gratifying to plan such an event and, in return, see the response in such a large turnout. What a pleasure it was to see the smiling faces of the supportive women behind the group of men that I am so pleased to call my peers.

Debby Mulvihill squares up a birdie putt with help from Gary. John "Trousers" Krutilla and wife Joyce cheer them on.

Wayne explodes, Jo Ann attacks.

Couples in attendance were: Bob and Kathy Belefield, Roger and Suzanne Bell, Jeff Bottensek and Irene Turner, Marc and Laurie Davison, Ed and Jane Devinger, Don and Chris Ferger, Glen and Sue Gerth, Don and Delores Gurda, Rod and Janell Johnson, Mark and Karen Kienert, John and Joyce Krutilla, Curt and Mary Larson, Dale and Linda Marach, Harvey and Joan Miller, Gary and Debby Mulvihill, Bob and Shirley Musbach, Wayne Otto and Jo Ann Swenson, Eric and Teresa Peterson, Bill and Patricia Roberts, Dennis and Kathy Robinson, Red and Joanne Roskopf, Steve and Cheryl Schmitt, Ron and Thelka Schumacker, Tom Schwab and Diane Bauckock, Bruce and Carol Schweiger, Al and Margaret Vrana, Woody and Betty Voight, Bob and Mary Welch, Skip and Nancy Willms, Bruce and Mary Worzella, Ray and Jan Woznik, Roy and Geri Zehren, and Host Superintendent: Glen Miller.

Janell Johnson sinks another putt as Rod Johnson, Wayne Otto, Cheryl Schmitt, Jo Ann Swenson, and Steve Schmitt look on.

The weather at Devils Head was similar to the weather elsewhere in the state that weekend, FOG. About the only disappointment of the weekend was one's inability to see the trees in full color on the bluffs which are part of this area.

Despite the dismal weather conditions, 17 couples participated in Saturday afternoon's Couples Golf Event. A good time was had by all using an alternate shot format with special paradise rules and an even more unique utopia putting rule. Al and Margaret Vrana came out on top with an outstanding score of 44, copping first place in the event and taking home the Mr. & Mrs. Moe dolls. One can easily tell that the Vranas have gotten a few rounds in since Al's retirement. The Devils Head course was in excellent condition under the guidance of Glen Miller. From everyone who took the opportunity to play golf during the weekend, thanks for your efforts, Glen.

Throughout the day Saturday and into the wee hours of Sunday morning, Rooms 137 and 139 were an attraction for all. Some of our generous purveyors hosted a hospitality area in these two rooms. A big thanks to the following for supplying the spirits and the snacks: Hanley Implement, Horst Distributing, Milwaukee Sewerage Commission, Natural Athletic Turf, Reinders and Wisconsin Turf.

Saturday evening we all gathered in a more refined atmosphere for a super meal of Prime Rib and all the trimmings. The entree' was well prepared and after some anxious moments while John Krutilla milked a cow and made ice cream, dessert was enjoyed by all.

R. Bell leads an after dinner sing along.

Wayne and Jo Ann cut loose!

Elvira!

Bill (Art Murry) Roberts and wife Patricia show their skills as Shirley Musbach checks on the drummer.

Hands down winners of the ugliest couple award.

Red and Bob join the band for their version of "The Auctioneer."

After dinner, the part of the weekend which all of our members were looking forward to with great anticipation took place — Dancing in the Devils Den to the Tempo Trio. The moves on the hardwood dance floor surpassed the moves Marques Johnson puts on his kind of hardwood floor.

R. Bell crushes a beer can to the disbelief of Mark and Karen Kienert and wife Suzanne.

The Tempo Trio Go Ziggy Go!

Once again, I thank everyone in attendance and who knows maybe now this famous event will become an annual event.

A few thoughts to treasure from the weekend, unforgettable but hereby recorded for the future:

The great food at the School House Restaurant
Ray Woznik playing bartender

The Mr. and Mrs. Moe Dolls
Steve Schmitt's booming drives setting up his wife Cheryl for easy 2nd shots

Red Roskopf leading Elvira
Video replays of the golf
M. K. going all weekend without any TANG
Ziggy the Dynamic Drummer
Tanqueray Hangovers
